Our Faces Tell Our

The face, many times, reveals your every thought and displays your emotions. It tells a story. Ours is a story of high school life. A phase of life, after we graduate, that will never be recaptured. We'll remember those four years which took place in the halls of New Castle High, the classrooms, the church street gym, the armory, and the many other gathering places.

Our faces tell many things. A smile was often seen. There were the many, many times when we were happy. Behind this smile might have been the thought that the Trojans were going to win, a good grade was made on that tough English test, or we were happy just to be among our friends. Then again, there were moments of sadness. A look of gloom would come over our face that we wouldn't be able to hide. We had our surprises, too. When we received some new honor, we were often surprised. Trying to figure the answer to a difficult problem brought a look of bewilderment upon our faces. Many times we wouldn't be able to solve some certain problem. Being frightened — often we were actually frightened. We were afraid those needed points wouldn't be scored, or that we had flunked a dreaded test.

Our story involves many people with different faces, but many of the same thoughts. Much of our story has to be told in words, but we've tried to capture most of it in pictures to prove to you that our faces tell our story.

New Castle-Henry Township High School is the official name of the brick building located on Fourteenth, Walnut, and Fifteenth streets, but to most of us it is called N. H. S.

N. H. S. added a distinctive landmark to its appearance this year. This is the aerial to the school FM radio station, WYSN. With the addition of the aerial, some changes were made. Part of the room was converted into a studio and a control room. The station is located at 89.3 megacycles on the Frequency Modulation dial. "Your Schools In New Castle" broadcasts over a power of 10 watts and has a radius of about two miles. New Castle High School became the fourth high school in Indiana to have a station owned and operated by the students.

There are many other additions; a very large freshman class came to the high school. This was contrasted with a small senior class.

The faculty made various changes, and nine new teachers were added to help teach the varied subjects. The dean of girls changed for the second semester. Miss Evelyn Rentschler took over Mrs. Alice Berhendt's duties as dean. Walter Hassfurther coached the varsity basketball team for the first year, while Kenneth Simmons coached the basketball B-team.

In the sports field, boxing and wrestling were added. Added to the list of organizations were the Bible Club, Art Club, and Rifle Club.

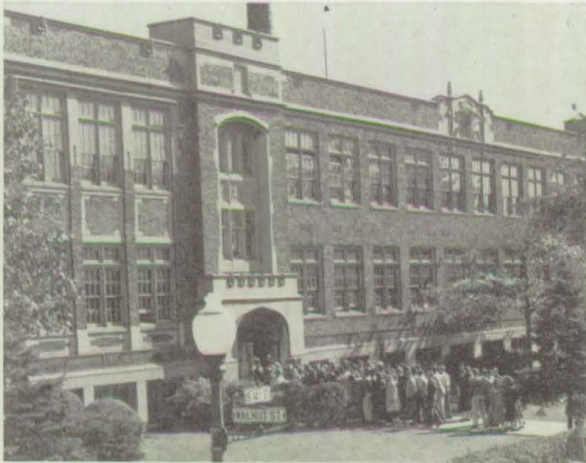

A girls' cheering block was reorganized by the yell leaders. In memory of a fellow classmate, the block adopted the name Macerettes.

Three classes added to the curriculum were distributive education, distributive occupation, and narcotics.

Our Visible Story Includes Being . . .

Many additions were made to make this school year different, but the entire school felt the loss of a beloved and familiar teacher, Mrs. Fylius Fisher. This home economics teacher's death was as sudden and quick as her willingness to help others.

We of the 1952 Rosennial staff are dedicating our yearbook to this beloved teacher.

Content With A Wide Curriculum

But Having Its Problems, Too

There Were Moments Of Excitement

And Those Filled With Optimism

During the fourth and fifth period lunch hours, some members of the Rosennial staff, plus the band, piled in a borrowed truck to advertise the sale of Rosennials.

With the coming of fall football games is the initiation of pledges. These Beta Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y "bathing beauties" and "girls" have stopped to strike a pose.

These Many Activities Make

Each weekday between classes, a hundred and one different faces can be seen. Everyone from the freshman to the senior passes through the halls to another class or stops to chat with a friend.

Ours An Unforgettable Story . . .

After each home ball game, there is a dance sponsored by one of the school clubs. These were times of enjoyment with that someone special or the gang.

Whether we were coming or going, the city bus would take us near our destination. We also traveled by school bus, auto, or our own two feet.

There are many varied activities which add humor and interest to the school curriculum. There are those little things that happen every day as well as those events that happen only once a year. Clubs, dances, banquets, parties, plays, and sport events keep us students busy. Although we may grumble about this place called school, we'll discover someday that these have been four wonderful years.

Our story includes the faculty who is always ready to help and guide us. Also there are those busy seniors and the many underclassmen waiting for their year to come.

A part of our story includes the trail of our Trojan teams, as told in the athletic section. Another part of our story is activities; these are the highlights of a wonderful year. Included, also, are the high school clubs which many students join.

The last section of this yearbook is advertisement. Here are some of the stores we patronize and work for.

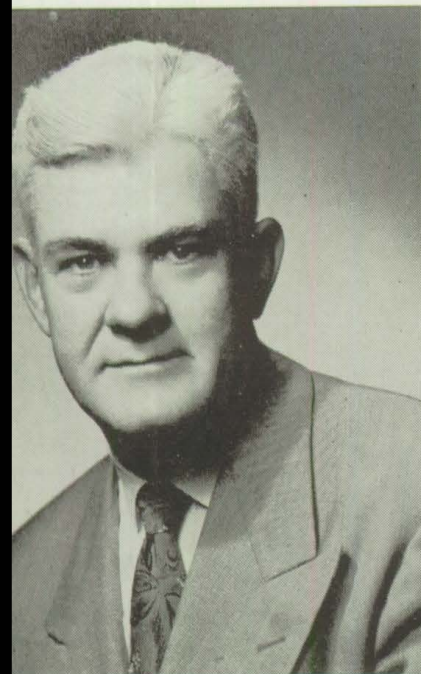

Faces do tell our story from day to day. These faces play a very important part in our daily steps through NHS. Well known to all students are the faces of the faculty who serve to guide us, the future citizens, by their wisdom, mistakes, and knowledge taught to them by others through experience.

Administration

Our Administrators Organize And

As the progressive leader of New Castle City Schools, Joe R. Craw, superintendent, has many duties. Although his office is located in the high school, is only a small part of his work. He always finds a friendly smile for all of those people who come in contact with him from day to day.

Our principal, Mr. Lemme, is another busy man with a smile. With foresight and unforgetting devotion, he coordinates the work of teachers and students. The doors of his office are always open, and his heart is extended to the problems and suggestions of students and teachers.

Guide Us, the Future Citizens

"Always ready to help;" that is the attitude of our deans, John Barks, Alice Behrendt, and Evelyn Rentchler. Mrs. Behrendt was dean of girls first semester and Miss Rentchler was dean second semester. With tact and sincerity our deans have lent encouragement and friendship to all with their helpful advice. Whether it be a personal, class, or working problem, they were always there to help find a solution.

Mrs. Behrendt and Mr. Barks also help in college guidance and plan the making out of schedules. Here they are shown looking over the attendance for the day.

The heads of the various departments at their work — Left to right they are Horace Cook, athletics; Mrs. Juanita Bishop, commerce; Miss Bernice McCord, English; Mrs. Esther Vogel, home economics; Bernhardt Beguhn, industrial arts; Miss Lewelta Pogue, language; Miss Fern Hodson, math; Bernard Pressler, music; Ivan Hodson, science; and Francis Reed, social studies.

Our Administrators Organize and

Interviews of business men, writing of applications for jobs, round table discussion of current events, and writing of compositions make up the work of this English 21 class taught by Mrs. Margaret Sanders. Other English classes study literature, while the senior English classes write autobiographies and children's stories.

Miss Fern Hodson explains the use of the slide rule to her sophomore math class. Miss Hodson has the bulletin board of her room decorated with brightly colored designs which are just one of the projects of the geometry classes. Her subjects also include trigonometry and algebra.

Four freshman students listen intently as their teacher, Mr. Bookout, explains the process of osmosis. When the weather provides, this biology class and others explore the immediate area. Their class also includes in its course field trips to the greenhouse, Coca-Cola plant, and historical building. One of the most interesting parts of the class is the dissecting of frogs.

Members of Miss Rupley's history 21 class look on as George Smith locates a point of interest. The class studies civilization from the caveman's time until the present. In the same department the senior classes study such things about our government as voting and the operation of our government in Washington and elsewhere.

Prepare Us for Tomorrow's World

WYSN was one of the newest and most interesting additions to our school this year. With the able supervision of Miss Rucker and the assistance of Mr. Elrod, programs were broadcast to all parts of the city. The programs were written and broadcast by the students of the radio classes, except for some transcribed programs, at 89.3 megacycles.

Members of Mr. Michael's shop class make many useful articles as they learn the operation of these machines. Some of these articles include cedar chests, book cases, lamps, coffee tables, and many other useful pieces of furniture to be used in the home. Members of the shop classes display their work behind the large windows in their workshop in the lower hall.

The art class in New Castle Senior High is one of the most interesting classes offered in the school. These art students shown here are molding clay to be used as dishes, ash trays, or ornaments. They also keep the bulletin board in the hall gaily decorated with signs of the season and news of coming dances. Other projects of the art department include finger painting, water color painting, and the making of puppets.

"Breakfast at school" is pictured here in Mrs. Davisson's cooking class. In this beginning cooking class, girls are taught how to prepare simple meals and bake pies, cakes, and muffins. In various other home economics classes, the girls are taught table etiquette, Christmas decorations, grooming, buying of clothes and their color schemes. Classes are also offered in home decorations and home nursing.

Senior class officers, Marvin Turner, president; Jerry Dann, vice-president; Donna Miller, treasurer; and Nanette Davis, secretary, fix a smile on their faces. They and the rest of the seniors will remember their days in New Castle High, where they were kept so happily busy.

Our Senior Year

Always the ending of one thing has meant the beginning of another. Here Davey Davisson accepts his diploma from Mr. Lemme and so ends twelve years of hard work toward this goal. During the last year as a member of the senior class, he helped his classmates carry out their motto, "Today we follow, tomorrow we lead." Along with the motto, the seniors chose the Golden Rapture Rose as their class flower, and mint green and forest their class colors. These three symbols led the seniors of 1952 through their last year of high school. The receiving of diplomas marked the ending of many things, but it also marked the beginning of many, many more. For some, it will mean the beginning of a family. For others, it will mean the beginning of a career, but for all it will mean the long awaited beginning of maturity. Whatever we choose to do will be big and exciting.

Was Nine Months of Activities

Preparing for college was quite a big task, but helping us over the rough spots was Miss McCord with her senior English class. Autobiographies and stories for the little folks were highlights.

"The Caring of a Problem Child" is most likely what these cadet teachers are reading. Pictured are Lois Hodson, Susanne Lynam, Morris Edwards, and Jack Johnson, some potential young teachers.

"To be or not to be, that is the question." That may be so for some actors, but not Cornelia Otis Skinner. She knew just what she wanted, even if it was so confusing that no one else knew what it was. The things that one must sacrifice for one's art were plainly shown by Cornelia — obedient friends, and ever faithful family.

This group of enthusiasts are credited with the Class Play and Class Day program.

The sound of hammers and the smell of paint prevailed the halls as opening night approached.

Of Happiness, Work, And Memories

In everyone's life some things stand out, while others seem to fade away. Two things the 1952 seniors will never forget, are their class rings, which they will always have, and the day they received their enclosure cards. Excitement ran high as they traded the small cards that were so important to being a senior. Three affected seniors that were caught by the eagle eye of the camera indulging in the madness were Mary Bach, Ken Hagerty, and Sylvia Wister.

The time was December the twelfth, the place the Christian Church, and the event was the annual Senior Vespers. The Vespers service was the very first of many, many lasts for the seniors of 1952. It was the first time they ever appeared together, but more than that, it was the first time they really felt that they were one group. In their minds was the dawning realization that this was really the first of the long line of lasts.

The guiding hand behind the many, many senior activities and the person responsible for our numerous appearances, Miss Catherine Ratcliffe, the senior class sponsor and faculty advisor.

Paul Moore and Willard Brown look at headlines and wonder what the future holds for them, while Annie Laurie looks at college pamphlets and tries to decide where she'll spend the next four years.

Keen interest and determination can be seen on the enthusiastic faces of the underclassmen. With the years that lie ahead of us we wonder what the future holds. Whether academic or preferred course, we know we will be well trained to seek our way along life's highway.

Young Gridders Develop Rapidly

The outstanding work of these coaches, Bob Lee, Langan Hay, and Bob Kirby, molded some inexperienced players into one of the hardest fighting teams in the school's history.

Always there ready to work or help were Jim Payne, Jack Dempsey, and Floyd Sanders. These student managers were kept busy in the locker room, and on the field.

Having trouble in getting started at the first of the year caused the 1951 Trojan squad to have a losing season with a 4-5 record. Coach Hay, faced with the problem of inexperienced players, did a remarkable job as he kept practicing the boys until they began winning toward the season's end. The Trojans dropped a 20-7 opener to Bosse Evansville and then lost games to Columbus and Richmond before winning. The men of Troy's first victory came in their fourth contest of the season as they overpowered the Connersville Spartans, 20 to 7. In the next game, New Castle once again suffered a defeat at the hands of the Marion Giants. The following week, however, the Haymen chalked up their second win of the season and first North Central Conference victory against Logansport, 7-6. Jack Roberts crashed over from the one-yard line on fourth down to tie the contest and then plunged over from the two for an extra point that decided the encounter.

Under Guidance Of Coach Hay

The New Castle outfit followed this triumph with a victory over Royerton. Then the Trojans had a two-game win streak broken by the Muncie Central Bearcats. The Rose City crew played one of its best games of the season against the Muncie team although they were beaten. This defeat was cast aside in the Trojans' minds as they blasted the Frankfort Nighthawks in their next outing to finish the season in good spirits and win their second conference victory.

THE SEASON'S RECORD

New Castle	7	Bosse Evansville	20
New Castle	7	Columbus	14
New Castle	7	Richmond	52
New Castle	20	Connersville	7
New Castle	21	Marion	31
New Castle	7	Logansport	6
New Castle	40	Royerton	12
New Castle	14	Muncie	26
New Castle	32	Frankfort	21

Duane Queener, 8, plunges over for touchdown in the first period of the Royerton game. Starting to throw a block is Dan Boyd, 25, while Bob Allen, 5, looks on.

Inexperienced, but full of spirit and scrap, describes these boys. They won only four games all year, but their steady improvement was quite noticeable as the season progressed. None of the boys were very big and therefore took a lot of punishment with what they dished out. Although they weren't a big team, Langan Hay said, "They are the hardest fighting team I have ever coached, pound for pound, only there just wasn't enough pounds there." The majority of the team was underclassmen and will be back on the gridiron next year with a little more experience under their belts.

But Just Not Enough Pounds

Showing great support and loyalty to the football team were the fans! Although the Trojans had trouble in getting started at the first of the season and ended with a losing record, the fans stuck with the team. The boosters not only overflowed the stands at the home games, but also many followed them in games out of town. They rejoiced with the team when it won and tried to cheer it when it was beaten. Last, but not least, was the sportsmanship the fans showed. It was outstanding. It's for sure the team wouldn't have had its heart in the ball game as it did, if it hadn't had the wonderful support from the fans.

Jerry Rains, senior quarterback, is shown being hauled down from behind by an unidentified Marion player. Marvin Turner, 6, arrives too late to help Rains.

A host of Trojan players rush to tackle a Columbus halfback, only to be beaten there by Herb Merideth. Ben Upchurch, 33, John Juday, 44, and Carroll Cleek, 37, are the ones arriving too late.

Marvin Turner, 6, puts on burst of speed to score the Trojans' only touchdown in the Richmond rout. The flashy senior halfback scored on a kickoff in the third quarter.

Some of These Boys Graduate

JUDAY — "Big John" was a junior end on this year's team and provided the spirit that kept the team going.

BOYD — "The Meanest Man in Indiana" will be missed at his tackle post next year as much as anyone else and maybe more.

CLEEK — A red-headed junior playing his first year of football was Carroll, who proved he couldn't be pushed around as a linebacker.

PUCKETT — If there were an award given to the hardest fighter, Don would surely receive it for his work as a senior end.

RAINS — Jerry's great play calling ability as a senior quarterback, and determination will be greatly missed next season.

QUEENER — Duane's drive and determination made him a valuable offensive player. This junior halfback will be greatly needed next year.

ARCHEY — "Boone" didn't play too much in his senior year but knew what to do when he got in the game as a halfback.

REUTER — Mike wasn't a big guard, but he filled in his spot as well as expected. He will be back next year.

ROBERTS — "Smilin' Jack," one of the Trojans' co-captains, was a junior fullback with plenty of fight and spirit. Although weighing only 155 pounds, Jack showed up outstandingly with his ball carrying, hard blocking, and terrific tackling.

TURNER — This flashy, 175-pound co-captain has played as a regular half-back for three straight years. Marv's good attitude and will to win has made him an example to follow. The senior speedster will be missed by his teammates but not by the opponents.

BOWMAN — "Bo" was one of the smallest tackles in the N.C.C. However, the strong senior stopped many an opponent touchdown.

ALLEN — Bob, a junior center, helped the team considerably with his vicious linebacking and blocking.

UPCHURCH — "Ears" played little offense but paved the way for the team when it came to defense as a lineman.

POINDEXTER—He saw little action as a tackle but filled his position well when needed. Porter is a senior.

BRAMMER — Another boy who saw little action as a senior but never got disgusted was Monte.

DEVINE — If "Ginger" only had another season left he would surely be a starter. Harold got very rugged toward the season's end.

RAY — A senior who saw limited action, but stuck it out with the team and displayed his loyalty, was John.

VANDERBECK — Jim, a rugged guard, played his first year as a regular and will be back next year.

"Hello team, hello Trojans," the crowd yelled as the team broke onto the floor behind one boy and three screaming girls. These four, Betty Stohler, Judy Sanders, Jim Brown, and Phyllis Robinson, worked steadily in keeping school spirit high with their catchy songs and yells. Working with Mr. Pressler and the Macerettes, they were behind the team all the way, win or lose.

Trojan Boosters All the Way

Under the guidance of Coach "Dutch" Hassfurther (right) and his able assistants Kenny Simmons (center) and Lou Larrison (left), the Trojan netters were changed from a very inexperienced ball club into one that became greatly feared. These coaches with the backing from the fans did a swell job.

In any sport that's played there is always someone behind the scenes of the game who keeps the equipment and outfits ready for use. Pictured above are Dick Dawson, B team manager, and Floyd Sanders, varsity manager. These boys, along with Jack Wallen, freshman manager, keep the team ready to go.

Capture Eleven Over Campaign

Junior guard, Dick Myers, 45, lays one in against Logansport's Berries. Dan Boyd, 33, almost hidden by Myers, watches shot.

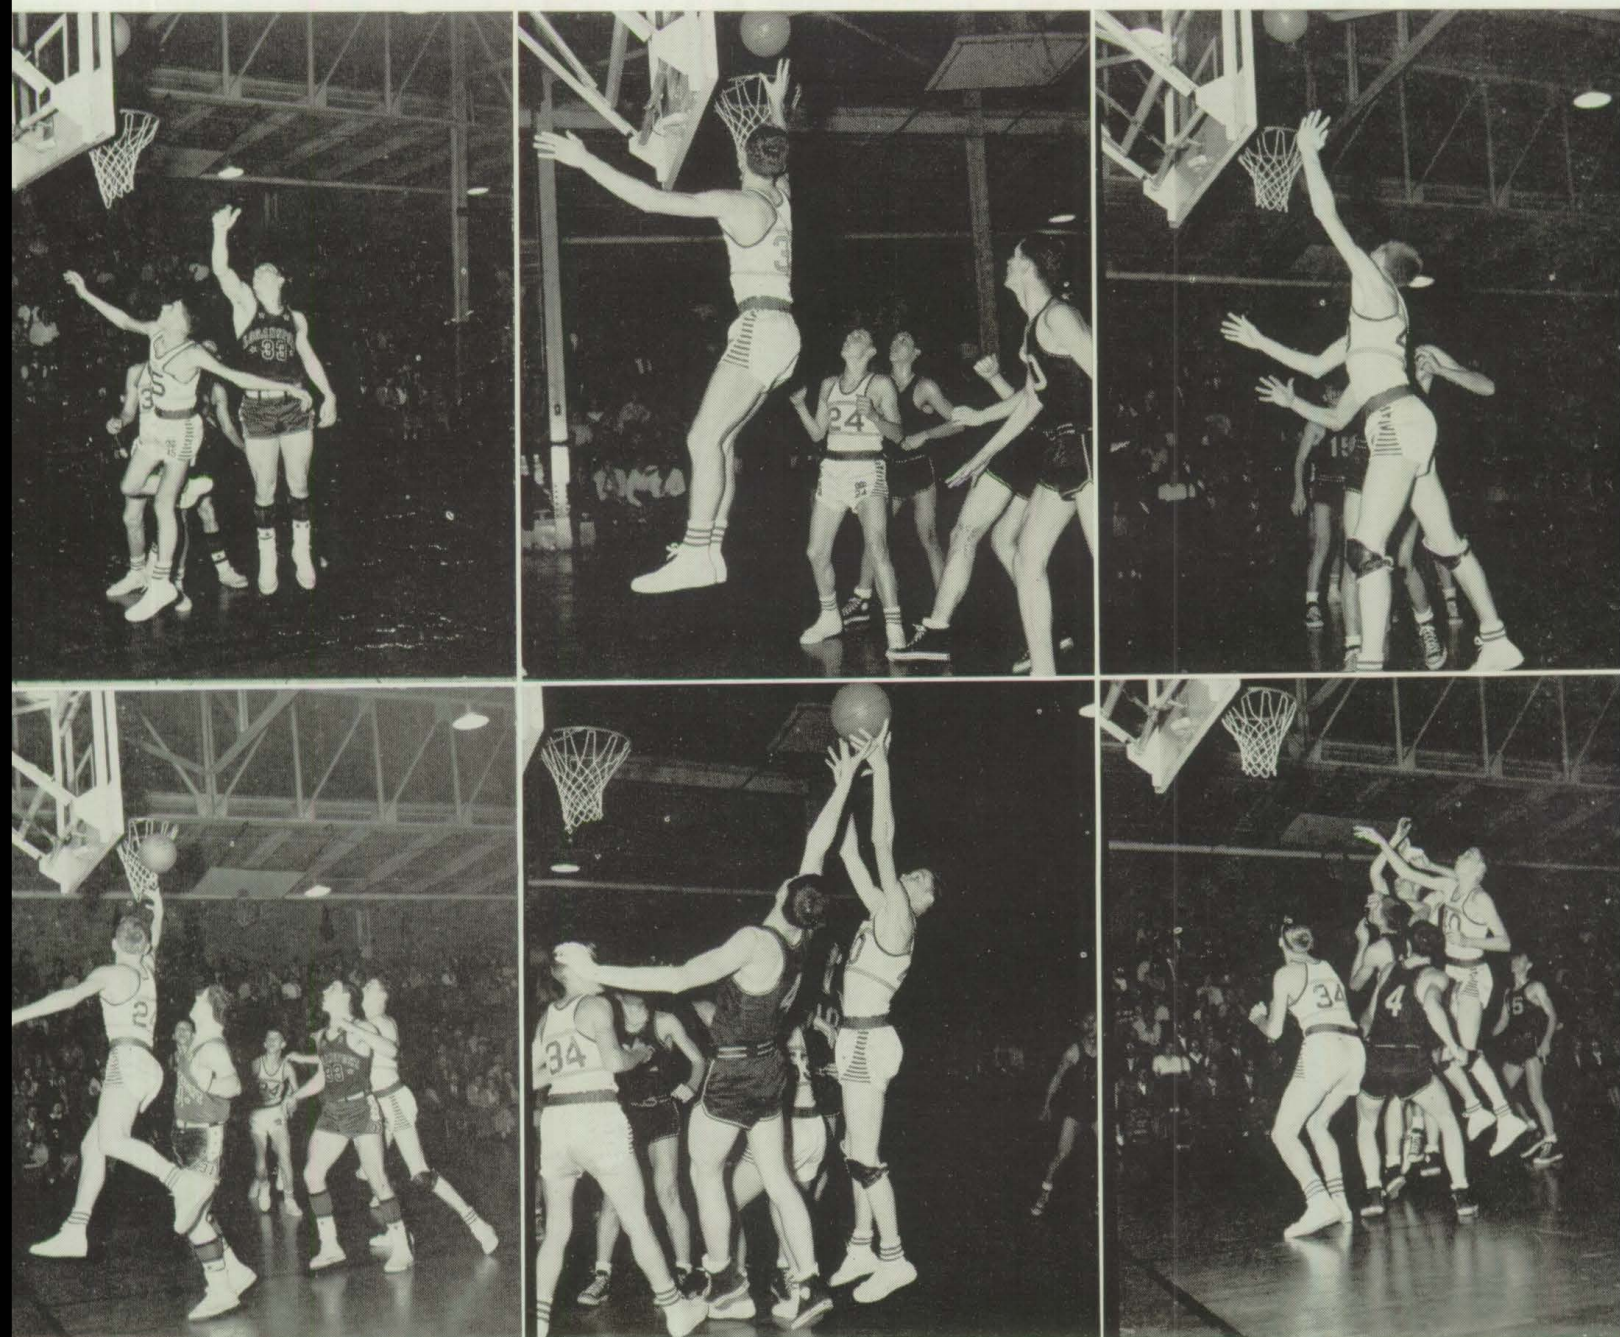

Trojans score again against Berries as Leon Ammerman, 24, tallies. Bruce Harris and Hollis Upchurch, 24, race in for rebound.

Dan Boyd, 33, scoots past Evansville Central defense to lay one up. Sophomore Leon Ammerman, 24, watches tensely.

Center, Bruce Harris, 40, takes rebound from a host of Evansville players. Don Anderson, 53, is caught in the middle of the mix-up, while Hollis Upchurch, 34, stands by.

Harris, 40, throws left-handed hook shot at basket against Evansville's team and connects for two more Trojan points.

Everyone looks toward the ceiling as though something were there. It's only a battle for a rebound, however, as Harris, 40, Upchurch, 34, mix it up.

Regain Sectional Champ Honors

It looks as though Boyd, 33, is offering ball to Rushville player while Harris, 40, protests. Ammerman, 24, seems to have lost something.

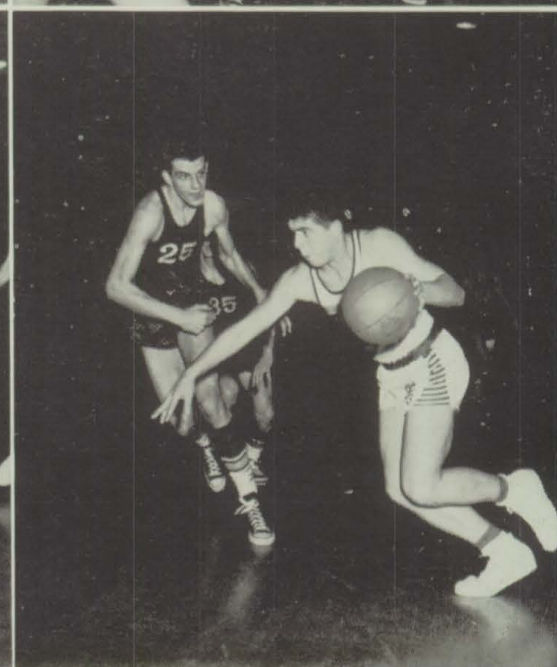

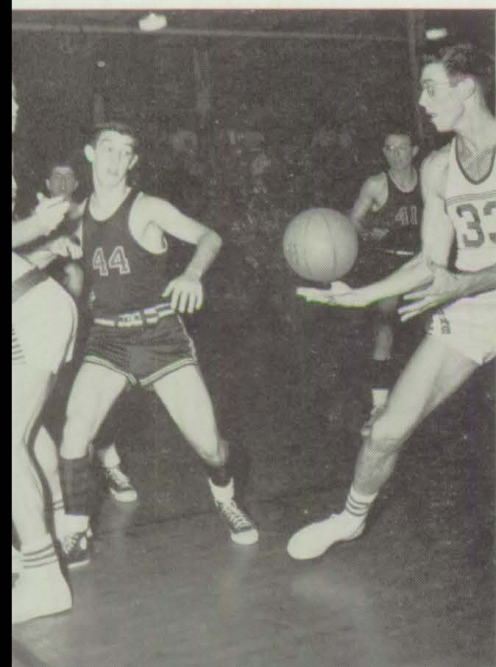

Boyd, 33, Harris, 40, Ammerman, 24, and Allen 55, close in on Rushville player.

Anderson, 53, shoots left-hander while Harris, 40, Boyd, 33, wait to rebound. Ammerman, 24, is in background.

Boyd, 33, acts as though he were riding an imaginary horse as loose ball falls on floor during Rushville game.

Boyd, 33, shoots ball at basket against Jeff of Lafayette as Anderson, 53, watches.

Anderson, 53, huffs and puffs like a locomotive as he drives for basket against same Jeff team.

'Dutchmen' Show Improvement As Season Draws To Close

HOLLIS UPCHURCH — This was "Hollie's" first year on the varsity, but he handled himself as though he had played on it for several years. His height came in quite handy and will be needed next year as Hollis is just a junior.

DUANE QUEENER — "Buck" was probably the hardest man on the team to guard. His speed and shiftiness made him a valuable man while he was in the game. The junior forward will be of great help next year.

DICK MYERS — Dick was one of the smallest players on the team. Despite his size, the junior guard continually fooled the opponents with his quick and tricky maneuvers. Dick didn't see much action at the first of the year, but soon proved to everyone he was quite valuable.

BOB ALLEN — "Bob" was a boy with lots of fight and determination. He started the season as a substitute, however, with his aggressiveness and spirit he became a regular forward in the middle of the season and will be back next year.

DAN BOYD — Dan, a six foot, two inch senior, did a swell job as a forward in his first and only year on the high school team. The towering forward not only scored consistently but was outstanding as a rebounder. Dan should go far in college sports.

BRUCE HARRIS — "Tiger" was the tallest player on the team as he measured six feet and five inches tall. The red-headed senior led the Trojan offensive this year and will be greatly missed next year. He will long be remembered.

Good Reserve Strength Helps Cagers Throughout Season

MARVIN TURNER — A boy with lots of team fight and spirit describes "Marv." This fleet-footed senior didn't play as a regular but did his job well when he did enter the game. Marvin's hard work will be remembered, along with his good humor.

LEON AMMERMAN — Leon was the only sophomore on the team, and he showed he was quite capable of holding down a varsity job. The hard fighting guard did a terrific job of shooting and also did his share of rebounding. Leon should be a big help in the future.

DON ANDERSON — "Andy" was a fine shot and excellent on stealing the ball from the opposition. He usually entered the game when the Trojans needed a couple of quick baskets. Don is a junior forward that will return to the team next year.

LE ROY NANTZ — "Peewee" didn't play very much, but was always dependable when called upon. He was a good team man and rebounder. Leroy will be back next year as he is a junior. He should prove to be quite valuable to the team when hard fighting is needed.

ED WALDEN — Ed saw little action in his senior year because of illness. While Ed was in the ball game, he could be depended upon to do his part. While he wasn't playing, Ed showed his loyalty by cheering for the team from the sidelines.

RONNIE LIGHTFOOT — "Lloyd" was another player who saw his last year as a member of the Trojan team. The hard fighting guard was a good shot and excellent ball handler. His spirit will be missed next year, as will his never ending drive and determination.

Reserves Show Great Promise

Coach Kenny Simmons, serving his first year as "B" team mentor, had about 20 boys on the team and played nearly everyone on the bench before the game was over. Coach Simmons' main object wasn't to just win games but was to teach the boys the fundamentals of the game and give each of them plenty of experience. By the end of the season, Simmons had as many as ten boys he could put into the game and little difference could be seen.

Fresh Squad Wins Eight Contests

Five freshmen players were moved up to the B-team during the mid-season and Coach Lou Larrison had to have a recall of all freshmen. The moving up of these players left coach Larrison with a handful of inexperienced players. Don Marsh was the only player left on the squad who saw very much action. He also was the brunt of their scoring attack.

Row One — Kay Miller, Larry Fox, Fred Moffitt.

Row Two — Dale Jarvis, Chuck Wood, Jerry Childs, Don Forbes, Bill Flowers, Jerry Troxell.

Row Three — Coach Lou Larrison, Dick Strukel, Garland Bailey, Dwight Tallman, Bill Richardson, Gene Smith.

Team Depth Hinders Thinlies

Not all the boys turned out for track that coach Lee would like to have, but the Trojan boss did quite well with the few he had. Tom Dailey paced the Rose City thinlies as he was the only Trojan to get to the state finals. Dailey, who threw the shotput, not only went to the state but placed third in the event. The greenies had very few meets this year, due to the fact that the equipment was burned up and all meets were scheduled away. The Trojans were victorious over Elwood, 65 to 45, but then lost at Connersville, 55 to 48. In the Frankfort relays the cindermen placed third. Many boys from the 1951 team graduated and left the Trojans very much weaker this year. Boys who were outstanding on the squad and who graduated are Tom Dailey, Mal Edwards, Fred VanHoose, Bob Stohler, and John Black.

Golf Becoming Popular Sport

Again the Trojan golf team showed up well, as golf is continually becoming a major sport in high school. The 1951 Trojan linksmen finished a well deserved fifth in the conference last year and failed by only one stroke to qualify in the sectional for the state meet. They finished the season by winning five meets and dropping three. Orlin Coleman proved to be the most consistant medalist on the team; however, Larry Meyer and Kelly Wise turned in outstanding scores. Orlin, Larry, and Kelly will not be back this season as they were seniors last year.

Langan Hay, who coached the golfers, had Morris Edwards and Jim Fromuth to round out last year's squad. Both of them will be back this season. Boys who will probably be on the squad this year besides Edwards and Fromuth are Terry Harris, Jim Stout, Jack Fadely, Bruce Harris, and Dick Myers.

Trojan 'Stickmen' Continue Hard Work Despite Losing Season

Lack of experience proved too costly to the New Castle baseball team of 1951, as the Trojan squad failed to register a win all season. All of the players, except five seniors, were underclassmen. Errors and lack of hitting power were the Trojans' downfall all season long. The Rose City nine played nearly every team a good game for about four or five innings, then the lack of experience began to show. Several times it looked as though the Trojans would come through with victories, only to have their hopes shattered in the late innings. The men of Troy played a tough Logansport team down to the wire, only to falter 6 to 4. The greenies just couldn't seem to get the runs across the plate when they counted.

Roddy Miller, Trojan first sacker, reaches for a high one before putting out a Kokomo base runner.

Lack of Experience Tells Tale

Eight boys from the 1951 baseball team graduated and will not play this year. Only a few of them were regulars on the team, but all of them stuck with it. Those who will not be back this year are Logan Carnes, Mal Edwards, Bill Harlan, Glen Lee, Roddy Miller, Fred VanHoose, Max Southerland, and Dale York.

Row Two: Fred VanHoose, Joe Stanley, Alton Taylor, Leon Ammerman, Max Sutherland, Dale York, Ronnie Lightfoot.

Row Three: Logan Carnes, Mal Edwards, Carlos Wallace, Bill Harlan, Glen Lee, Roddy Miller.

Little could have been done without the help of Coach "Dutch" Hassfurder. Even though the Trojans lost all their games, Hassfurder taught the inexperienced team quite a few pointers. Since most of the players were underclassmen and return to the team this year, "Dutch" thinks that the hard work he and the boys put in last year will pay off with plenty of wins this season. Coach Hassfurder wouldn't let the boys get discouraged and told them their turn will come in the future.

Girls Enjoy Developing Bodies

Under the guidance of Jan Flemming and Juanita McGill, the girls' gym classes participate in a balanced program of sports activities. During the winter months they enjoy such sports as ping-pong, basketball, volleyball, calisthenics, kickball, and tumbling. In the spring and fall they engage in softball, archery, and speedball. They also have free days when they may do any kind of activity they desire. Some of the free day activities are badminton, deck tennis, and dancing. Many of these girls are members of G.A.A.

Jane Horney, Janie Stinson, and Ruth Higgins, members of the fifth period physical education class, are participating in a game of basketball, one of the games played during the winter months.

"Bend, one, two, one two, three." Another activity enjoyed by the girls' gym classes during the winter months is calisthenics. These girls from the fifth period class are doing one of the many different exercises they learn.

New Games Introduced To Boys

Learning the fundamentals of sports brings the boys physical education classes into contact with many different activities, varying with the sports calendar. Under their instructors, Langan Hay and Bob Lee, they concentrate on marching, calisthenics, tumbling, basketball, volleyball, boxing, wrestling, weight-lifting, horizontal bar, parallel bar, horse, flying rings, and softball.

Push-ups, an exercise developed during calisthenics training, are the means of developing a strong and well co-ordinated body.

Calisthenics are an opportunity for every boy to develop. Those boys who do not excel in competitive sports are given an equal opportunity to mature physically by exercising.

In this way, all boys receive the benefits of a wholesome and well balanced schedule.

Basketball is one of the main activities enjoyed by the boys' gym classes. The boys divide up into two teams and compete against each other. Here members of the third period gym class are playing a fast game of basketball.

Our organizations, queens, musical and dramatic groups filmed expressions of enthusiasm, anticipation, and surprise on the faces of all of us throughout the year. All of these activities with moments of excitement, along with our academic work, help mold our lives for the future.

Staff Of Reporters And Printers

The Phoenix staff finds time for many activities. During the year the staff sponsors the Tourney Trot after the sectionals. They also give a banquet for staff members as well as putting out special issues of The Phoenix during the year. Journalism is fun. No one can convince the staff that there isn't always some enjoyment in doing its weekly assignments, in spite of its many ups and downs. Here they check copy, write headlines, and plan the dummy for next week's paper.

The print staff plays an important part in getting The Phoenix out every week. These boys are the people behind the scenes — the little men who are always there, running the linotype, setting the type, and printing The Phoenix. The boys under the direction of Mr. Beguhn are: row one—Mike VanNatta, Herlun Huckeby, Billy Denny; row two—Harry Smith, Jerry Sorrell, Gary Bryant; row three—Claude Kirkpatrick, Charles, Ray, Junior Stonerock.

Strive For A Better Weekly Paper

"We need a two-column story for the front page!" "How many inches of ads will we have this week?"

These are just a few of the questions asked as the assignments are made every week on the students' own paper, The Phoenix. Each member of the staff has a special job, but everyone joins in when it comes to writing news items.

It takes a lot of work to put together a school paper. Meeting deadlines, making out dummies, copyreading, and gathering up-to-the-minute news all go toward making up The Phoenix. Each year, The Phoenix staff sponsors two big subscription campaigns which give The Phoenix a wide circulation throughout high school and junior high.

Our Faces Show Our Pride . . .

Even in September, when the Rosennial was only an appointment book filled with dates and a collection of ideas, we had high hopes for its future. In its pages, we hoped to record the happy times we spent in N.H.S. in 1951-1952 through words and pictures.

With our pride and our ideas, we started to work. During the summer, the editors went to Indiana University where they chose the theme and planned the dummy. With their help, the rest of the staff organized to receive their staff positions and began making picture appointments and planning a big publicity campaign. When the dummy came in October, we saw our plans in book form and we were eager to put our thoughts in action.

The year went by with the press conference at Franklin, the choosing of the Rosennial's cover, and the addition of six juniors to the staff the second semester. Time flew by, and before we knew it, our deadlines were due. Then came a deluge of copy-writing and picture mounting. The completed dummy was finally sent away, and then we waited.

When it came back, everything was there — the record of 1951-1952 in New Castle High School. We, the staff, present this year's Rosennial to you, with pride.

Pride In Our 1952 Rosennial

Each member of the Rosennial staff had his own special little job to perform. The 1952 Rosennial is made up of many small parts — each done by a member of the staff.

Our editors, Nanette and Donna, spent the year keeping the rest of us busy while business manager Jayne planned ways to skimp and save to keep us out of the red.

Betty lined up appointments, pictures and information on faculty. Jane followed Tom Petty around while he took club pictures and then had the fun of identifying the people in them.

Seniors and their activities were the property of Mary and Judy. Martha and Jayne dug through stacks of glossies to organize the underclassmen pictures. Beverly and Bessie kept "shutterbug Tom" busy snapping scenes for the activities section when he wasn't working for the other staff members. Day after day, Barbara, Jayne, and Terry spent the period persuading merchants to buy ads.

Duane compiled statistics and pictures to complete the sports section.

Elaine, Martha, and Sandy helped identify people in pictures, and Janet and Sally typed copy and helped compile the index. These juniors will form the nucleus for the staff of next year.

Writing heads and making appointments with the engraver were two more of the many tasks that fell to Nanette and Donna. Mr. Ballinger engineered the mounting of pictures and was always around to see that our deadlines were met and that everything was put together correctly.

CHOIR

Row One: E. Carnes, M. Culp, M. Tatum, C. Cheshire, J. Bailey, J. Hall, R. Armstrong, S. Brown, C. Elmore, R. Fischel, J. Thomas, M. Stubbs, N. Beck, M. Recher, D. Davis, J. Helton, L. Newby, J. Stephens, J. Eastham, D. Coers. Row Two: R. Higgins, M. Lane, E. Daubenspeck, A. Stove, M. DeWeese, J. Stove, F. Clow, F. Poore, A. Furbee, J. Sanders, G. Franklin, M. Ramsey, E. Ingram, I. Van Hoy, K. Bailey, J. Moore, Mr. Martin. Row Three: L. Horney, J. Carter, D. Riley, J. Sampley, J. Caldwell, D. Thomas, J. Fadley, T. Preble, F. Moystner. Row Four: K. Luttrell, J. Carter, B. Reese, G. Bryant, H. Keith, E. Armstrong, P. Poindexter, B. Archey, D. Brenner, J. Andrews, D. Locker, D. Pentecost, P. Bray. Row Five: F. Eans, B. Elwood, B. Tatum, R. Fisher, J. Hay, D. Eans, H. Bardsley, T. Romine, M. Turner, G. Neff, J. Hurst.

The choir, under the direction of Don Martin, played a big part in the school activities of the year. To start the school year, the choir gave a wonderful performance for the annual Senior Vespers, which is sponsored by the P.T.A. They inspired the listeners with the traditional Christmas hymns, which they sang.

Working with the orchestra, the choir also presented another series of concerts during the year.

Seated around the piano, we have our choir officers. They are, Randall Fisher, librarian; Tom Romine, president; Jim Brown, vice-president; Kay Phyllis Bailey, treasurer; Mary Lou Stubbs, librarian; and Mary Tatum, secretary.

ORCHESTRA

Row One — Marilyn Goar, Marian Moore, Joyce Thomas, Roberta Meeks, Bobbette Griffin, Judy Curlette, Marvin Hutson, Janice Bell, Lois Winslow.

Row Two — Lorna Newby, Rheta Gorman, Joe Hurst, Mary Boyd, Jerry Harry, Glenn Higgs, Larry Wardlow, Robert Johnson, Porter Poindexter, Tom Preble, Tom Romine, Benny Archey.

Row Three — Charlene Zornes, Juanita Burnside, Charlene Elmore, Jim Myers, Joan Bailey, Fred Hawk, Kenny Luttrell, Joan Carlton, Benny Todd.

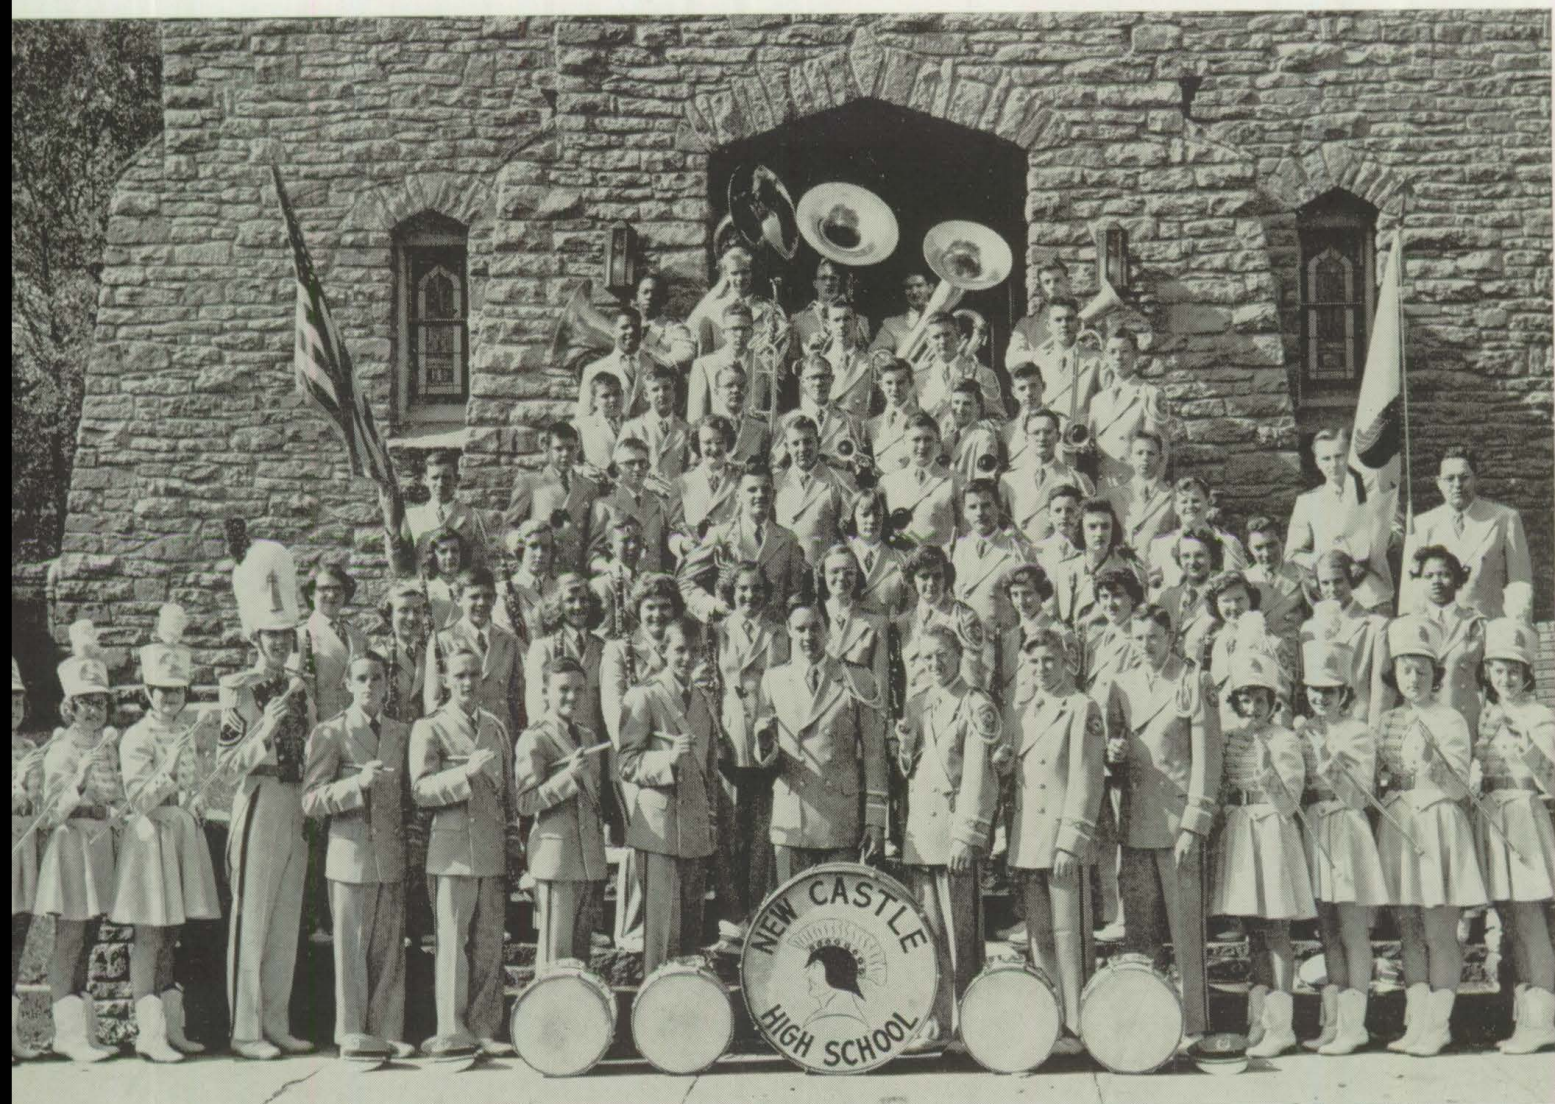

Setting the background for the senior class play, Curtain Call, Crescendo Varieties, and Commencement as well as giving concerts throughout the year are a few of the activities of the orchestra. Each day, the fourth period, you'll find the members of the orchestra directed by Ralph Burkhart busy with every type of musical composition from waltzes and concertos to marches. Ensembles of members of the orchestra competed in the state music contests. The string ensemble plays for several community events.

Officers elected this year to lead the orchestra's activities were Marilyn Goar, president; Joan Bailey, vice-president; Joyce Thomas, secretary; and Joan Carlton, treasurer.

Band, Majorettes, Stinkers

Row One — N. Reno, M. Brown, I. Land, J. Reece, J. Swayzee, F. Hawk, D. Simmons, T. Maze, O. Brown, B. Welch, F. Cheshire, J. Stonerock, P. Rager, J. Thomas, W. Brown, B. Pfeffer. Row Two — S. Bryant, D. Reid, M. Alexander, B. Griffin, G. Coffey, P. Garten, J. Curlette, P. Stinson, L. Newby, R. Gorman, M. Logston, L. Campbell, L. Winslow. Row Three — O. Denny, J. Adams, G. Jackson, R. Johnson, J. Stove, M. Hutson, D. Brammer, E. Ingersoll, L. Stults, M. Moore, K. Brenneman, R. Fisher, B. Pressler, conductor. Row Four — J. Hanning, G. Rickert, G. Higgs, M. Moore, G. C. Thompson, J. Harry, B. Simmins, M. Beckett. Row Five — E. VanBuskirk, H. Catey, D. Farley, D. Stover, P. Branham, J. Puckett, J. Apple, B. Ricks. Row Six — P. Poindexter, J. Sox, G. Smith, J. Andrews, D. Tallman. Row Seven — B. Archey, J. Payne, G. Wilkinson, G. H. Clay, T. Romine.

MAJORETTES

Keeping in time with the music describes the majorettes. They will long be remembered for their Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy number accompanied by Bernard Pressler and the band. The majorettes, consisting of seven girls, are: Kneeling — Mary Ellen Brown, Betty Pfeffer, Wanda Brown, Ilene Land, Joyce Thomas. Standing — Phyllis Rager, and Norma Jean Reno.

Arouse Trojan Pep And Spirit

Row One: J. Andrews, G. Smith, J. Sox, P. Poindexter, J. Reese, Mr. Pressler.
 Row Two: M. Hutson, L. Stults, M. Moore, L. Horney, P. Achor, G. Thompson.
 Row Three: D. Simmons, F. Hawk, O. Brown, G. Clay, B. Archey.

PEP BAND

What's a Pep Session without the Pep Band??? That's the cry that would be heard from the N.H.S. students if B. O. Pressler and his little Stinkers didn't faithfully appear at our pep sessions. Playing the Trojan spirited tune, "On New Castle," always puts the students in high Trojan spirit.

The little Stinkers were originated in 1950 and since that time have played a big part in many school activities, such as, Macerette practice, which is the new cheer block formed this year. They also provided music for the annual Whoop De Doo, which is sponsored by the P.T.A. The Stinkers also took part in the "Trojan Band Night" at the Castle Theatre. Last but not least the little Stinkers traveled to many out of town basketball games and also played for the sectionals. The Stinkers were always dressed in comical costumes with false noses, wigs, and loud neckties. This made them not only an ear catcher, but also an eye catcher.

The Pep Band, known as the Stinkers, will always be remembered for their fine performances.

BAND OFFICERS

To have a good band, we must also have our band officers. Working hard for a better band are Otis Brown, quarter-master; Betty Pfeffer, secretary; Norma Jean Reno, treasurer; and G. C. Thompson, captain.

The officers are kept busy with their special duties. The captain and the quarter-master have the job of inspecting uniforms and instruments. The secretary keeps up the correspondence for the band, and the treasurer takes care of the band's money.

Dramatics Classes Present Plays

CURTAIN CALL

Love-making in every imaginable way fully described the play, How To Propose, with Bruce Harris, Suzanne Lyman, Judy Sanders, G. H. Clay, Jim Caldwell, Marcia Medalen, Sally Malloy, Don Copeland, Ruthann McDowell, Robert McClain, Bob Pruett, Jeanette Stafford and Ronnie Lightfoot.

The things that a man sees and hears at his own funeral was the theme of the play, Balcony Scene. The cast for this play was Ruth Lyons, Shirley Morris, Jack Roberts, Morris Edwards, Terry Harris, Randall Fisher, Betty Pfeffer and Mary Mayfield.

Fighting for one's life is difficult, no matter what the situation may be, but with the help of one girl, this symbolic problem was solved. This was one of the scenes from This Night Shall Pass with Sandy McCarthy, Junior Land, and Bill Jones.

The stage crew is busily working together for the opening performance. Each of these girls is working on their special duties. Sue Holt, Carolyn Mayer, Janet Cartwright, Geraldine Hall, Jill Wainscott, and Cheryl Solida are setting up the stage scene, while Nanette Davis and Mary Tatum are looking over the play in print.

Crescendo Cast Gives 'Summer Stock'

Out of the music department last spring, came one of the top shows of the year — Crescendo Varieties. From the pens of Jerry Dann, John Black, Bob George, and Marilyn Copeland, flowed the words to make the show's theme, "Summer Stock," unforgettable for those who saw it.

The story unfolded much of the talent of N.H.S. as it told of a Broadway troupe stranded in a barn which was converted to a theater for its show.

The Stinkers beat out a little Dixieland music while Nancy Fisher, Martha Lou Johnson, Mary Roy Catt, and Nancy Beck dance a lively Charleston, and strum their ukuleles. The set for the barn surroundings was made by the art classes.

The Broadway players discovered a singer in the farmer's daughter, (Marcia Ramsey). J. C. Addison played the gun-totin' farmer, and Bob George and Joan Dee Cooper played the leads in the show as singers.

During rehearsals and the actual performance of the show, the various other acts were given.

Jackie Fadely, Bob Reese, and Don Thompson presented a comical version of "Nevertheless." Bob George and the sextette sang "You're Just in Love" and "Sitting by the Window." The boys' quartette harmonized on "Lindy Lou" and "Dream Boat."

The pit choir joined the cast in singing "Country Style" under the direction of Mr. Martin, Mr. Pressler, and the orchestra.

The Mills Brothers (Bob Stohler, Kelly Wise, Larry Meyers, and Jackie Roberts) gave their rendition of "Paper Doll" and "Up a Lazy River." Mal Edwards sang "Basin Street" with an excellent lighting effect, and Marcia Ramsey sang "Put Your Arms Around Me, Honey" in a Sophie Tucker style. Several other vocalists included Mary Tatum, Tom Romine, Davy Davisson, Jean Banta, and Barbara Curlette.

Instrumental solos were given by Charles Rinehart, Porter Poindexter, and Charles Preble.

A team of dancing girls opened the summer stock production with "Get Happy," and a chorus line of high-stepping dancers closed it with "Lullaby of Broadway." The finale was presented by the entire cast singing "There's No Business Like Show Business."

We Kept Happily Busy

The month of September meant the beginning of school, cooler weather, football games, and homework. Deanna Worl and Phil Lance were two of the freshmen who peered behind the doors to be sure they had the right room number. The now full-fledged seniors felt much older and wiser and watched the freshmen with great glee.

October brought such things as Teacher's Institute, which meant a few days of vacation, the Journalism Institute at Franklin College, Halloween, and club initiations. At the football games, pledges from Hi-Y, Questers, and Alpha and Beta Tri-Hi-Y were at the mercy of the older club members as they struggled through the rough initiation.

With the coming of November, N.H.S. students began looking forward to Harvest Hop, the Purdue Assembly, Thanksgiving, and basketball season. The orchestra gave its first concert of the year, and the dramatics department presented "Curtain Call." After the smoke of basketball try-outs cleared away, the Trojans opened the season with lots of practice and instruction from Coach Hassfurder.

The highlights of December for the seniors were College Guidance Day and the annual Senior Vespers sponsored by the P.T.A. There were club parties, and the SunShine Society held its Faculty Tea. After Christmas came Beta Tri-Hi-Y's Holiday Dance, and New Year's Eve parties ended a festive month.

On January 1, many Trojans traveled to Kokomo for the New Year's Tourney only to see our team defeated by Logansport and Anderson. Students voted for King Eskimo at National Honor Society's after-game-dance. SunShine girls held their annual chili supper and theater party. Those dreaded exams came along and found many students like this, strangely unprepared.

From September to June

February — the month of hearts and birthdays. But to us it meant the month of Beta Tri-Hi-Y's Hearts Hop and the music department's winter concert and music contest. Hi-Y honored its fathers and mothers with a banquet. Seniors were taking scholarship exams, and many made definite plans about the college they would attend by looking over pamphlets and catalogs as these seniors are doing.

March winds announced the eventual coming of spring. The SunShine Society revealed its secrets at the Ideal Ladies Party and Beta Tri-Hi-Y honored all the sportsmen of N.H.S. with its Letterman's Banquet. This was the month when "Hoosier Hysteria" reached its peak with the state finals. Loyal Trojans, along with hundreds of others all over the state, eagerly watched their television screens to see who would be state champs.

April showers! The rains came, but they didn't put a damper on us! In April came the choir's long awaited tour, Hi-Y's Best Girl Banquet, and the Science Fair. A few days before Easter, SunShine had its impressive Easter Sunrise Service. National Honor Society held its induction banquet for new members. Crescendo Varieties made a big hit, and the senior class proudly presented "Family Circle" as their class play.

For all of us, May meant being busy. There were parties for senior club members, and the juniors honored the seniors with a never-to-be-forgotten Prom. Honor Day launched the week of graduation activities and was soon followed by Class Day and Baccalaureate. Exams were over, and then came Commencement and the close of school. Seniors climaxed their Commencement with the P.T.A.'s dance and the Chamber of Commerce's Night Club Party.

June began three months of summer and vacation. Many students planned to work during vacation while others went back to school for summer school. Some were fortunate in just being able to loaf at the pool and the canteen. Still other N.H.S. students made plans for trips. Packing, tickets, maps, and time tables all went to make a good vacation for Delores and Patty as they board the train for an exciting summer vacation.

Prom Queen And Court

Memories, memories, our Prom we'll recall. She reigned as queen, and with her court made Prom the best of all. Memories, memories, we'll never forget the scene; Spring Nocturne was the setting when we made her our Prom Queen.

Attendants to the Prom Queen were presented with white satin banners bearing the numbers 1951 in red.

'Memories' Is Theme Of 1951 Junior Prom

...“I crown you queen of the 1951 Junior Prom.”

These words spoken by the junior class president, Jerry Dann, highlighted the evening of May 19th as he crowned Donna Miller queen.

The theme, “Spring Nocturne,” formed the setting for streamers in shades of amber, yellow, and orange which fringed the dance floor of the armory and formed the false ceiling overhead.

During intermission, the dancers saw the junior dramatics class present several scenes of memories of other Proms. The entertainment was climaxed by the presentation of the queen and her attendants.

Jimmy Stier and his orchestra filled the air with music, and memories were made for everyone at the 1951 Junior Prom.

Escorts to the queen and her attendants stood behind their dates' chairs in a semicircle formation during the crowning. Other attendants were Marilyn Goar, Nanette Davis, Martha Foyst, and Barbara Ramsey.

Royalty Reigns For A Night

Wearing her crown of white carnations and red roses, Betty Stohler led the grand march following her crowning as queen of Heart's Hop.

Betty was crowned by her escort, Larry Meyers, after Donna Charlton announced the queen and her seven attendants.

The annual girl-ask-boy affair, which is sponsored by Beta Tri-Hi-Y each February, was decorated with white streamers and tiny red hearts.

Bob Armstrong and his band played for the occasion.

In a setting of streamers of autumn colors, Marilyn Goar, escorted by G. C. Thompson, was crowned queen of Hi-Y's annual Harvest Hop. She was crowned by Terry Harris, president of Hi-Y. The twelve-piece band of Dick Mor-denti provided the music for the homecoming dance.

Leon Ammerman smiles happily as Marilyn Goar crowns him King Eskimo at the Snow Spin, sponsored after a basketball game by the National Honor Society. Tom Preble's orchestra set the musical background.

Speakers Vie For Honors

This year, for the first time since 1938, N.H.S. has had a debate team to enter into competitive speaking. It has taken much work, preparation, and careful coaching to train this group of eager students to be polished debaters, and Mr. Risley is the man behind the scenes who has so patiently done all this. This year's nationwide debate question is conscription of American citizens in time of war.

A week of strenuous campaigning preceded the election of one senator and four representatives to the Purdue Legislative Assembly. Taking part in a model legislature, these students learn government through actual practice.

A speech clinic for debaters and extemporaneous speakers was held at the same time as the Assembly. Here Janet Trittschuh and Helen Blackburn were chosen among the top ten speakers, and Beverly Brenner was named one of the top ten speakers in the House of Representatives.

Leaders Of Today Are Preparing

Distributive Education — that's a big name for a class that is giving many students an excellent opportunity to learn salesmanship. After special arrangements with downtown merchants, they secure jobs to put into practice what they have learned.

Jane Pfenninger and Randall Fisher admire the plaque presented to the school by the Curtis Publishing Company for outstanding achievement in selling magazine subscriptions to finance the printing of the school's literary magazine, Trojan Tribune. Jane and Randall were business managers of the drive.

Working out letter formations fell to Martha Foyst, Mara Jane Stinson, and Doris Coers, officers of the Macerettes.

As president, Martha took charge of business meetings. Mara Jane, as secretary, took roll at all meetings, and the treasurer, Doris, kept track of financial affairs.

For A Brighter, Better Tomorrow

Leadership, scholarship, and character determine the Junior Rotarians who are selected each year by the Rotary Club which chooses the leaders of the community. One of the eight seniors chosen attends the Rotary Club dinner meeting each month.

Members of National Honor Society and the senior class president automatically become Junior Rotarians. Others are elected by members of the National Honor Society.

Each boy attends Rotary for one month.

The honor of being selected an Altrusa Girl came to seven N.H.S. seniors when the Altrusa Club chose them as outstanding for their plans in vocational fields.

These girls were selected by a committee of Altrusa Club members on the basis of leadership, probability to succeed, service, and character.

Beautician, teacher, doctor, and dancing teacher were among the professions that the girls have chosen.

Alpha Tri-Hi-Y

Betty Caldwell led the Alpha Tri-Hi-Y this year through its many and varied activities. She was assisted by Joyce McMasters, vice-president; Ruth Lyons, secretary; Lois Hodson, treasurer; Shirley Beck, chaplain; and Beverly Gregory, sergeant-at-arms. Miss Helen Rupley was the sponsor.

Alpha took over selling from Beta at the last three home games. Also, they helped in the spring Easter Lily Sale.

Two parties highlighted the year. In February, a Valentine Party was held in the First National Bank basement, and in May, the annual Senior Party was given for the graduating girls.

Alpha went together with Beta to buy the new dean of girls a potted plant to welcome her to New Castle High School.

Delivering baskets of fruit to needy families, sponsoring the Holiday and Heart's Hop dances, holding the Lettermen's Banquet, and Maw, Paw, & Me Banquet were only a few of the many activities of Beta Chapter of Tri-Hi-Y this past year.

Beta was formed this year from Fi-Del and was led by Beverly Brenner, president. Her officers were Marilyn Goar, vice-president; Joyce Hamilton, secretary; Marie Williams, treasurer; Nanette Davis, chaplain; and Shirley Morris, sergeant-at-arms.

The girls had as their motto: "Pure thoughts, pure words, pure actions." Their purpose was "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, home, and community, high standards of Christian character."

Beta's sponsors were Mrs. Richard Ring and Mrs. Lewis Larrison.

Beta Tri-Hi-Y

Questers Hi-Y is the only N.H.S. club restricted to underclassmen boys. They meet every Monday evening in the Y.M.C.A. Canteen.

In the fall, Questers had a Pledge Party for its new members. At Christmas, they decorated the Canteen Christmas tree. Later on in the year, the boys held their annual Father-Son Banquet.

John Hougland, Charles Ray, and Bill Wilt were sent to Camp Tecumseh last summer for Hi-Y training. Also, some boys were sent to the Older Boys Conference at Connersville.

At Christmas, Questers gave baskets to the needy people.

Leading the group this year, along with Lewis Larrison, sponsor, were John Hougland, president; Jim Wright, vice-president; George Smith, secretary; Ed Ingersoll, treasurer; and Harry Keith, chaplain.

Questers Hi-Y

Living by their platform — clean speech, clean scholarship, clean living — the Hi-Y boys this year made their club one of the outstanding in the school.

Terry Harris led the boys this year along with G. C. Thompson, vice-president; John Ray, secretary; Tom Rea, treasurer; Jim Brown, chaplain; and Jerry Rains, sergeant-at-arms.

In the fall, the boys initiated their new members at a pledge party held at the Lewisville Shelter House. The pledges gave skits and imitated the older members.

Hi-Y sponsored the Harvest Hop again this year and held the annual Best Girl Banquet. To this banquet the boys took their best girls and feted them to a delicious supper and a good band. Parents were honored at the annual Mother, Father, & Son Banquet.

Latin Club

Interesting programs at the monthly meetings highlighted the year for the many Latin Club members. The programs were planned to better acquaint the Latin students with the history and customs of ancient Rome.

Last fall, the new members were initiated at a meeting where they took a make-believe trip to Tartarus, the underworld. Here, they met many gods and goddesses who explained their purpose and reason for being there.

In October, Miss Ratcliffe told the group about her trip to Europe by using moving pictures taken there. The Christmas program, in December, was given by the Latin 22 classes, and January featured the same class presenting Miss Mabel Hodson, their sponsor, with a blue and yellow S.P.Q.R. banner. This banner was hung in room 204.

Guiding the club this year were Ronald McCormack, president; Fred Moystner, vice-president; Nanette Davis, secretary; and Mary Rose Matthews, treasurer.

Spanish Club this year did many different things to keep itself busy.

Because of the early Christmas vacation, its annual party wasn't held until after the holidays. Some of the members presented the play, "Una Pasada," at this party.

Another misfortune came their way when bad weather cancelled their after-game dance. Cookies, which the club was going to sell at the dance, were sold in the library after school. A complete sellout was the result.

In May, the annual Spanish Club Banquet was held at the Y.M.C.A. The officers for the coming year were announced.

Leading the club this year were Fred Moystner, president; Robert Usher, vice-president; Judy Sanders, secretary; Shirley Wiley, treasurer; and Miss Lewelta Pogue, sponsor.

Spanish Club

This year the junior and senior chapters of F.H.A. went together to form a combined group, doing away with the two groups formerly organized.

The girls belonging to F.H.A. work step by step to become future homemakers by putting into practice different phases of homemaking. Using this step by step idea, the girls had as their theme, "Footsteps Toward the Homes of America."

This year F.H.A. had a wiener roast in September and a Christmas party in December, along with several other social activities.

The girls make their money, which is used for charity and to send delegates to state and national meetings, by sponsoring an after-game dance and holding rummage and bake sales.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vogel was sponsor with Ina VanHoy as president; Ruth Fischel, vice-president; Pat Kelsay, secretary; Phyllis Rager, treasurer; Pat Lovely, historian; Judy Life, parliamentarian; and Elaine Ingram, song leader.

Future Homemakers Of America

Judging corn, wheat, livestock, and chickens, taking a trip to Illinois in the spring, and honoring their parents at a Parent and Son Banquet in March were only a few of the many activities of the Future Farmers of America this year.

The boys raised money by selling seeds and staging a paper drive. The aim of the club is to buy farm machinery and to farm its own land.

President of F.F.A. this year was Robert Huse. Other officers were Jack Fadely, vice-president; Donald Thompson, secretary; and Jim Hamm, treasurer. Morris Weekly sponsored the club.

Machinist Club

The Machinist Club was formed for the purpose of enabling boys taking vocational machine shop to organize into a group. The boys held a meeting once a month and had a big party at the end of the year.

Throughout the year, the boys took field trips to factories throughout this area. In May, the graduating boys were presented with a gift from the club.

The "Greasy Skid" was sponsored by the club after one of the basketball games. The boys advertised their dance by making posters and decorating the bulletin board in the main hall.

First semester officers with Jack Spencer, sponsor, were Jerry Rains, president; Bob Foster, secretary; and Bill Patton, treasurer. Bob Foster served as president the second semester; Keith Bailey was elected secretary, and Bill Patton remained treasurer.

One of the most active clubs in N.H.S. is the Future Business Leaders of America. They try to put into practice what they learn everyday in classes.

F.B.L.A. this year bought an electric typewriter, and a 10-key adding machine, plus other useful things in the business department.

The main project of the club is operating the bookstore. Students can buy all school supplies and candy here between every period.

Each year our F.B.L.A. chapter has helped get one new chapter of the organization started some place in Indiana.

Two initiations were held this year, one at the beginning of each semester.

To make money, F.B.L.A. sold jello and had a typing committee that typed tests for teachers and assignments for students for a small fee.

Officers this year were Albert Cash-dollar, president; Phyllis Browning, vice-president; Joanne Bennett, secretary; Wilma Rickert, treasurer; and Glenda Clark, reporter.

Future Business Leaders Of America

A three-day trip to Versailles State Park was the big event on the agenda for the members and sponsors of Science Club this past year. Those going spent their time hiking, studying nature, learning about soil erosion, and in the evenings, square dancing.

A chili supper was held last fall to start things for the year. The members all pitched in and helped make that and the annual Science Fair, which was held in April, a success. A requirement of the students was a display connected with biology, physics, or chemistry. The demonstrations ranged from "How to Make Soap" to the study of different species of birds.

First semester officers under the guidance of Mr. Bookout, Miss Rankin, Mr. Hodson, and Mr. Rinehart were Robert Usher, president; David Riley, vice-president; and David Brenner, secretary-treasurer.

Serving for the second semester were Randall Fisher, president; Bertha Rager, vice-president; and Phyllis Price, secretary-treasurer.

Science Club

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in good sportsmanship. The girls participated in such sports as basketball, volleyball, bowling, kickball, and speedball with other schools.

At the end of the school year, the seniors were feted at a May Banquet held at Muncie. At this party members are given awards according to the number of points earned during the year.

Officers for the year were Janet Smitherman, president; Lillian Marcum, vice-president; Alyce Stove, secretary; and Helen Blackburn, treasurer. Miss Jan Fleming and Mrs. Juanita McGill co-sponsored the group.

Sunshine Society

Led by Betty Stohler, president, the SunShine Society was the largest and one of the most active clubs in N.H.S. At Thanksgiving, fruit plates were delivered to shut-ins by the members and Christmas brought the SunShine group working with the youth of the Methodist Church in preparing baskets of food for the needy.

The girls entertained their mothers at an apron party and their fathers at a Dad-Daughter Date Night. The annual Easter Sunrise Service was another activity held by the group.

In April, the Ideal Ladies were honored at a party given by the club. At this party, the identity of her SunShine girl was made known to each Ideal Lady.

The senior members of the club were guests at a party in May. A never-to-be-forgotten evening was enjoyed by each guest.

Other officers assisting Betty were Phyllis Robinson, vice-president; Martha Foyst, corresponding secretary; Elaine McGinnis, recording secretary; Jane Pfenninger, treasurer; Judy Life, sergeant-at-arms; Joan Black, chaplain; and Mrs. Fylious Fisher, sponsor. Miss Martha Nutt assisted the girls the second semester.

SunShine Society worked the second semester in memory of their late sponsor, Mrs. Fylious Fisher. Her death, February 16, came as a sudden shock to every SunShine girl. She was loved, admired, and respected by every member of the group and by every student in New Castle High School. Not only was she a sponsor to the group, but a sister to every girl.

Fylious was an active figure, not only in SunShine, but in the Order of Rainbow for Girls. At the time of her death, she was a member of the state boards of both organizations.

At basketball games, she was the guiding hand in the SunShine's money-making project of selling popcorn between quarters. Her ever presence at the games will always be remembered.

These words will soon be forgotten, but the memory of a wonderful friend we called Fylious will live on forever.

Scholarship, leadership, character and service are the standards upon which the members of National Honor Society were chosen last year. As in each year, only 15 per cent of the junior class can be elected to membership, and this group is picked by the faculty.

The members collect convocation passes at convocations, usher at plays, concerts, and other programs, and compile the honor roll at the end of each six-weeks' grading period.

First semester officers were Terry Harris, president; Mary Culp, vice-president; Ruth Lyons, secretary; and Robert Usher, treasurer.

For the second semester, Randall Fisher was president; Marilyn Goar, vice-president; Jerry Dann, secretary; and Donna Miller, treasurer. Miss Catherine Ratcliffe is sponsor.

National Honor Society

The National Forensic League is an honorary club organized for students who have earned a certain number of points by speaking in speech contests and community programs.

In October, N.F.L. sponsored the Rostrum Romp, an informal dance at the gym.

Speech trips were made by the members of the club to Howe Military Academy, Ball State Teachers College, Indiana State Teachers College, and other speech contests. This spring, N.F.L. entered the annual state contest.

The pin of the club is a silver key with a jewel set specifying by its color the number of points you have earned as a member.

Beverly Brenner led the club along with Jim Brown, vice-president; Patsy Poole, secretary; and Anne Fleming, treasurer. Juanita Rucker was sponsor of the club.

Student Council

The Student Council was organized in order to provide for student voice in school activities, to develop a spirit of co-operation and friendship among students, and to serve in every way, the best interests of the Senior High School.

Members this year were presidents of each of the school organizations and junior and senior class presidents.

The group had many activities including a campaign for Courtesy Week and another for Etiquette Week. They also talked of some way to extend courtesy to visiting teams.

In February, Student Council sponsored a party for all county cheerleaders. This party better acquainted the yell-leaders with each other and created more sportsmanship at the sectional.

Heading the organization this year, under the guidance of Mr. Lemme, were Beverly Brenner, president; Marilyn Goar, vice-president; Betty Stohler, secretary; and Marvin Turner, treasurer.

The Interclub Council was organized this year to bring all the clubs associated with the Y.M.C.A. closer together.

Hi-Y, Quester's Hi-Y, Alpha Tri-Hi-Y, and Beta Tri-Hi-Y were represented in this group by their presidents and two other active members.

The council spent its time talking over problems confronting its respective clubs. It sponsored several swimming and volleyball parties for the four clubs.

Morris Edwards led the group along with Betty Caldwell, vice-president; and John Hougland, secretary-treasurer.

Beverly Brenner, Shirley Locker, and Jane Horney represented Beta. Betty Caldwell, Shirley Beck, and Phyllis Price were the Alpha members belonging to the council. From Hi-Y were Terry Harris, Morris Edwards, and Ronnie McCormack. Quester's sent John Hougland, Marsee Beckett and Harry Keith.
