It All Began On Sept. 8th

The upper classmen were busy welcoming the freshmen and 8A's to our "corner." The seniors were sad to think they were beginning their last fling. Everywhere there was the excitement of the first day.

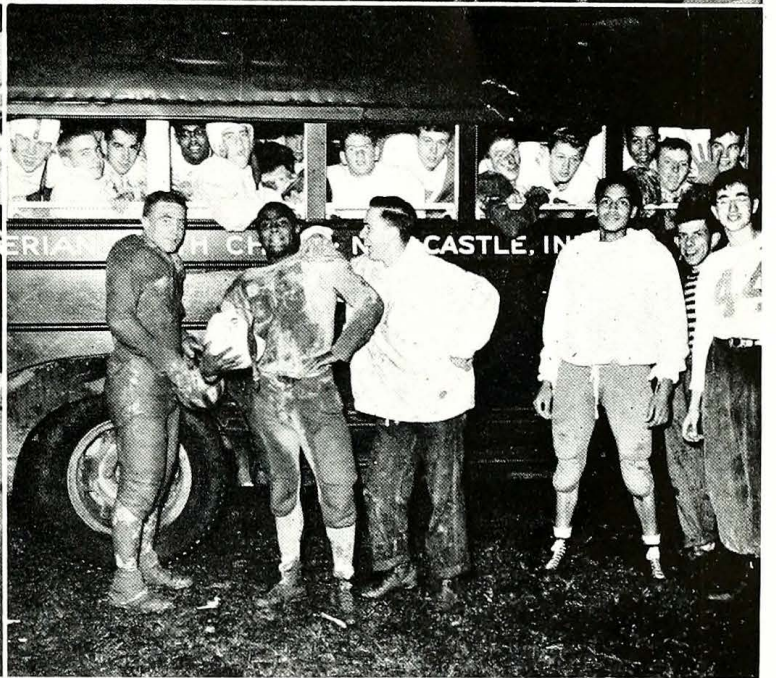

Wonder what they're selling?

Watch it, teacher's looking!

Get a horse!

After the brawl!

We Rode In Anything From Fords To Busses

Something new in our hall was the information desk. The SunShine Society put this desk in the main hall to help visitors and other lost souls. The F.B.L.A. Club solved a long sought-after problem when they established the book store and concession stand in the lower hall. The senior and junior classes organized and elected officers. Football began with a bang, and many clubs started their rough initiations.

yell leaders. We will also remember our "Acrobatic Bernie" whose spirit made us cheer that much harder.

YES, this is our gym, the host to our dances — after-the-game sport dances and most of all our unforgettable PROM.

We Remember All The Little Things Too

Getting splashed at the drinking fountain, cramming for final exams, displaying our latest fads and fashions, and always talking, talking, talking to our friends. Yes, they all add up to four wonderful years spent here at . . . the corner of 14th and Walnut.

Miss Leakey, Miss Halberstadt, and Mr. Larrison relax in the faculty lounge.

NO SCHOOL WOULD be complete without a staff of faculty members to teach and inspire its students. These earliest arrivals at our corner are often the last to leave, for besides teaching, they also sponsor many of our outside activities. Here is just a little about them . . .

Faculty

Our Administrators See That

MR. JOE R. CRAW

Superintendent
A.B., M.A.
Butler University

MR. EARL F. LEM

Principal
A.B. Indiana University
M. A. Butler University

Improving the educational program for our community's children is uppermost in the minds of the men who serve on the New Castle-Henry Township School Board. Their keen interest in student affairs and problems controls their thinking in choosing a staff as well as in expanding the physical facilities in our schools.

Everything Runs Smoothly

Mr. John Barks and Miss Alice Becker, the deans, are in charge of guidance in making out schedules and helping students choose a vocation. They also counsel with students on many problems.

The corner of 14th and Walnut will not seem the same without Mr. Bronson and Mr. Greenstreet, who retire this year. Here they look over Rosennials they have collected during their many years of service to N. H. S.

These are the heads of the various departments here at NHS. The top row includes Charles Stuckey, athletics; Miss Edna Banta, biology; Miss Bernice McCord, English; Miss Lewelta Pogue, language; and Francis Reed, social studies. In the bottom row are Mrs. Juanita Bishop, commerce; Bernard Pressler, music; Miss Fern Hodson, mathematics; Miss Elizabeth Roney, home economics; and C. S. Kinder, industrial arts.

Whether It's Athletics Or Art

ENGLISH

Senior English composition and grammar were combined into a one semester course. Miss Bernice McCord's class wrote many essays but this year the best remembered will be the children's stories they wrote and later read to the grade schools. Several of them were sent to a publisher by Mrs. Hazel Dannecker.

GIRLS' GYM

A block away from the corner of 14th and Walnut, girls have gym classes in the Armory. Besides tumbling and playing basketball and volleyball there, classes often enjoy outdoor sports such as soccer and baseball.

DRAMATICS

Senior dramatics class taught by Charles Eric Bickley presented "Curtain Call," a series of one-act plays with the junior class, and a radio play, "Antigone." The classes also attended two stage plays, "Anne of a Thousand Days" and "Death of a Salesman."

It's All Part Of Our Day's Work

ART

These students are taking advanced or fine arts. The art curriculum consists of beginning art, crafts or handiwork, commercial art or advertising, and fine arts. Miss Mary Manifold's class will long be remembered for the attractive bulletin boards and the signs they put on the third floor walls backing the Trojans at tourney time.

CADET TEACHING

GENERAL SHOP

Industrial arts and vocational classes give first hand information about our world of machines and materials. Math, science, social science, and English are combined with the know-how of industry to help us prepare for future responsibility.

Senior officers Don Scott, Margie Hall, Joan Thompson, and Herb Bunch guided the class of '50.

THE CORNER OF 14th and Walnut saw many busy people during the year. But perhaps the busiest of all were those 183 students who knew this was their last year. So, on the pages following are recorded the names and faces of our Very Important Seniors . . .

It Was Fun To Be A

Our class rings identify us as members of the Class of 1950. At right—the big moment, when we get our diplomas from Principal Lemme.

In September of '49 the class jewelry arrived. Next on our senior calendar was to select class colors and flower. In November we chose mint green and rust and the Golden Rapture rose. As our motto we selected "Give the world the best you have and the best will come back to you." During the year, as seniors, we attended Vespers and Baccalaureate. Only too soon, Commencement and the big senior party brought our four years in NHS to a close.

Miss Catherine Ratcliffe, our senior sponsor, has a friendly smile for all of us. At right—she distributes commencement invitations to a group of seniors.

Senior Here At Our Corner

The cast works on lines under the student director, Dee Ann Jessup. Roberta Harris, technical director, lends a helping hand to the always busy stage crews.

Junior Year - Accent On Activities

The junior class of 263 elected for its class officers this year Tom Dailey as president, Duane Tichenor as vice-president, Barbara Macer as secretary, and Bill Cluggish as treasurer. The juniors engaged in many activities and clubs, appeared in Curtain Call and Crescendo Varieties, worked on the Phoenix and Rosennial, and entertained the senior class with a wonderful Junior Prom. Several boys played varsity sports and a number of girls attended Girls' State. In the spring, twelve of them were elected to National Honor Society. Our underclassmen are offered many and varied classes in the fields of music, art, speech, business, homemaking, physical education, agriculture, and machine trades as well at the three R's. Here our students are taking advantage of their opportunities in volleyball, art class, freshman shop class, and algebra.

"Chuck," "Dutch," and Bobby Lee seem more than a little worried about the Trojan five!

ON THE GRIDIRON or a baseball diamond, at the gym or the tennis courts, our athletes made everyone at the corner proud of our teams and their sportsmanship. They left a mighty "Trojan Trail". . .

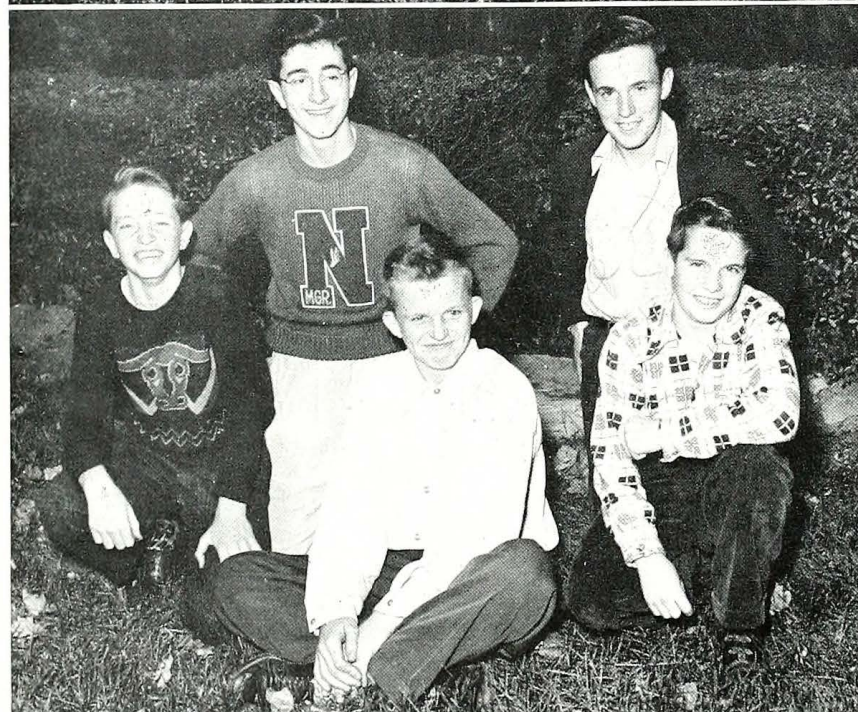

Athletics

The Brains Behind the Brawn

The coaches that led the Trojan gridsters to power were Langan Hay, affectionately known as the "Kentucky Colonel," and assistant coaches Bob Lee and Walter "Dutch" Hassfurder.

Colonel Hay was largely responsible for the Trojans' last two successful seasons during which they lost only one game and rated among Indiana's best high school teams.

Work, work, and more work; this was the part the managers played in the Trojan athletic program. Jerry Dann, with his staff of Jim Fromuth, Jim Rouse, Dale Rouse, and Don Crawley, bore the burden of keeping the equipment in shape. Supplying every player with a game uniform, a towel, and other equipment kept these underclassmen on their toes.

The 1950 TROJANS . . . a team worth cheering for, a gridiron power that lost only one game out of 18 in two seasons . . . their pigskin parade was a parade of glory. Stopped and tied only by the Muncie Bearcats, the Trojans ranked among the top five teams of the state for both the 1948 and 1949 seasons.

We will long remember the runs of Jerry Ellis, the passes of Dick "Hands" Whalen, and the time Jack Wright intercepted a pass and scored to give New Castle the edge over West Lafayette.

New Castle's mighty Trojans, defending N. C. C. champs, continued to prove that they were one of the strongest gridiron powers in Indiana during the 1949 season. Opening strongly, the Trojans vanquished Hartford City and Columbus, squeezed by Richmond, and then easily defeated Connersville, Logansport, and Frankfort. In the jinx game, the game all Trojan rooters feared, the favored Trojans fell before Muncie 20 to 6. Again showing their original power, the gridmen conquered West Lafayette and Lafayette to end the season with 8 wins, 1 loss, and a tie with Muncie and Lafayette for second place N. C. C. honors.

Jerry Ellis — Leading scorer in N. C. C., All-American halfback, "Buck" specialized in spectacular plays.

Don Smith — "Stonewall," 210 pound fighting tackle was considered one of the best linemen in the conference.

Jack Wright — "Jack Rabbit" endeared himself to Trojan fans when he intercepted a pass and went on to win the West Lafayette game.

Dick Whalen — "Hands" was undoubtedly the greatest quarterback New Castle has turned out in many a year; his genius won many games for N. H. S.

John Cassidy — Called the "fight-inest" boy on the team, Johnny started each game with that same determined spirit.

Herb Bunch — Herb, 6' 1", 187 pound running end, was one of the steadiest players on the team.

Jack DeWitt — Varsity center on offense, this boy handled the ball with astounding accuracy.

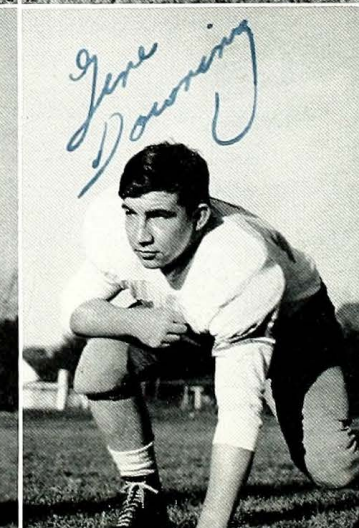

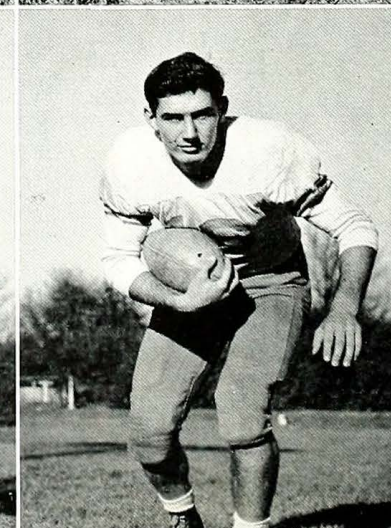

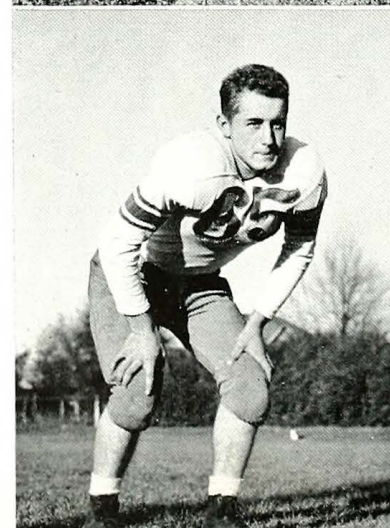

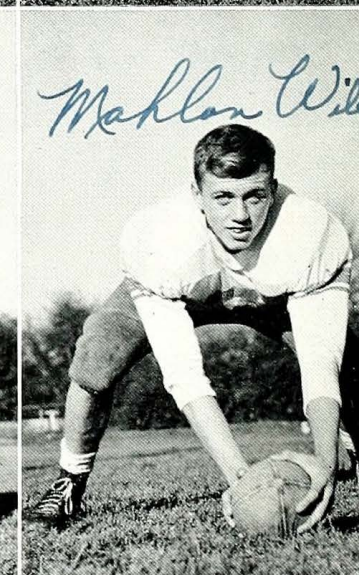

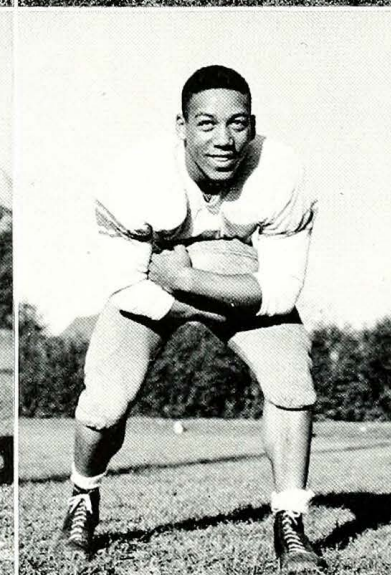

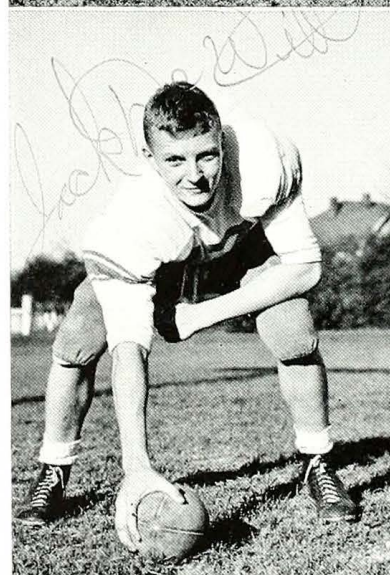

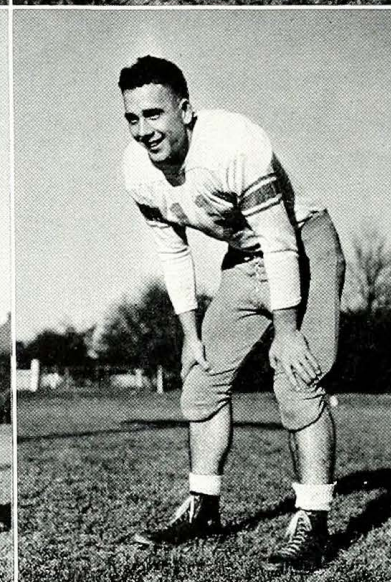

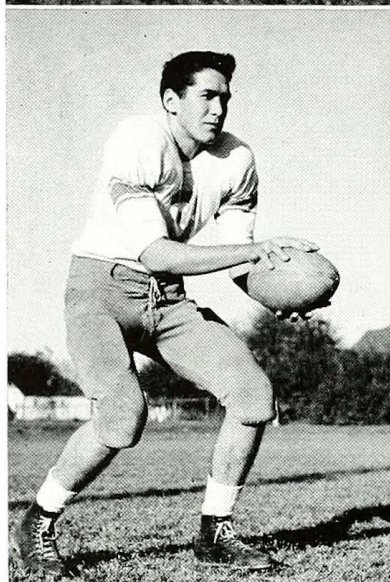

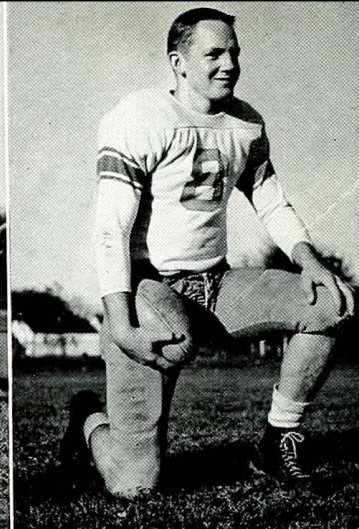

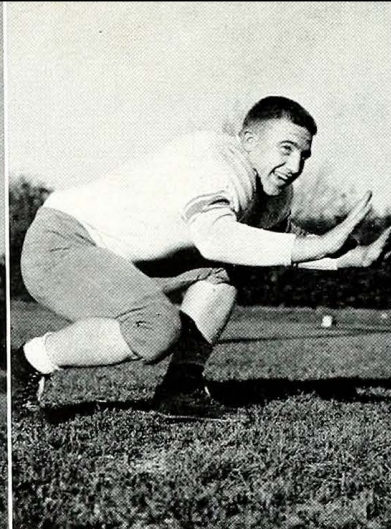

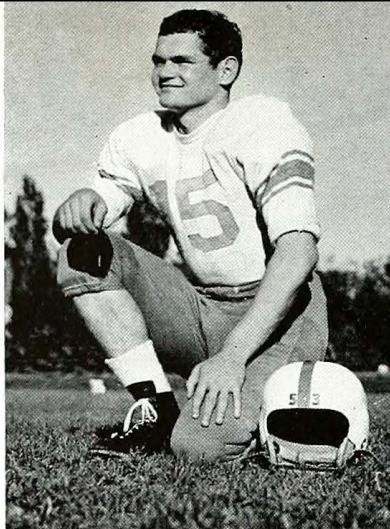

Kenneth Bassett — Although he averaged 18 yards per run, Kenny didn't see much action because of injuries.

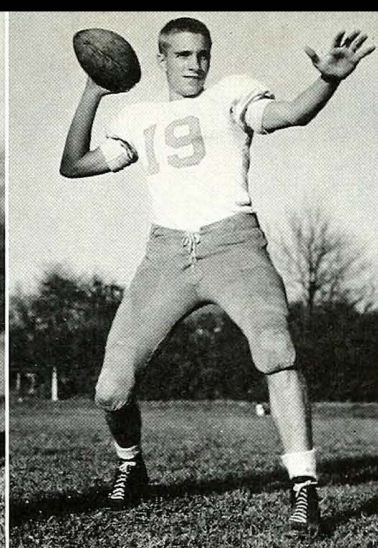

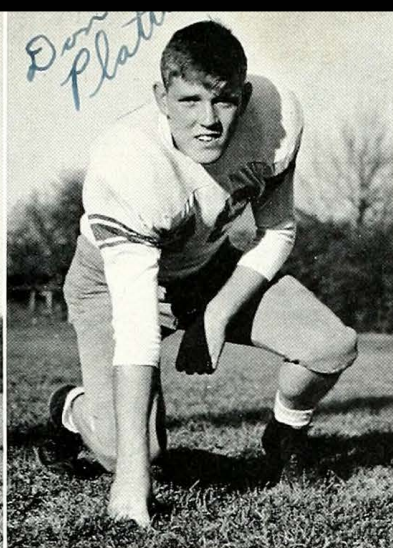

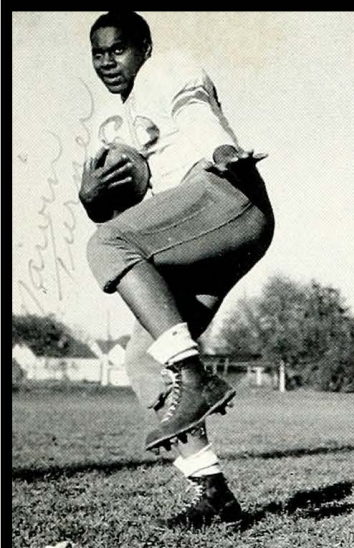

Mahlon Wiles — Line backer, one of the lightest boys on the team but surprising on defense.

L. B. Taylor — Smallest senior on squad, L. B. kept up the team's spirit with his never-say-die attitude.

Tom Dailey — "Big Tom" ended as fourth high scorer in N.C.C. and will be back again next year, a 190-pound fullback who couldn't be stopped.

Gene Downing — A boy that the Trojans will miss next season, "H. E." really put something into his offensive playing.

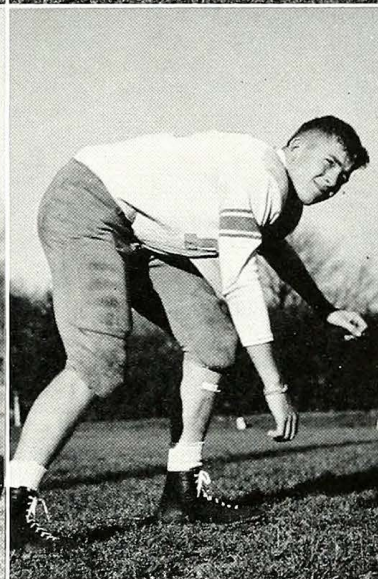

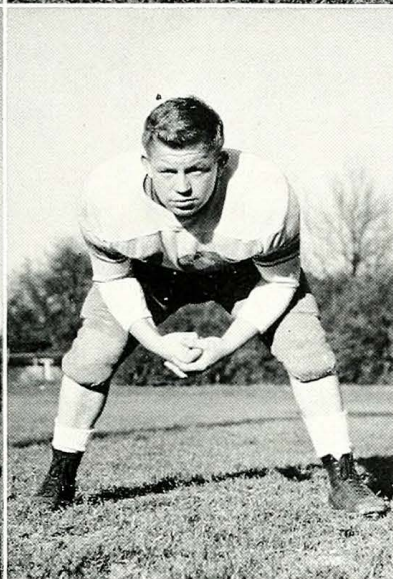

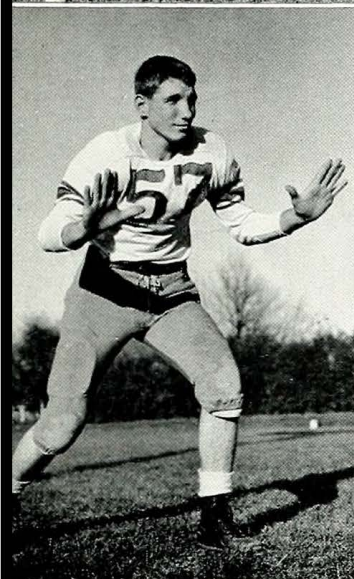

Marvin Turner — Sophomore half-back filling regular slot on team, destined for big things next season.

Don Platts — Junior guard, a big boy who really puts his heart into football.

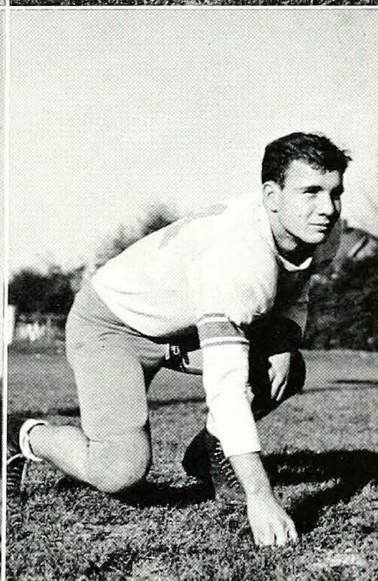

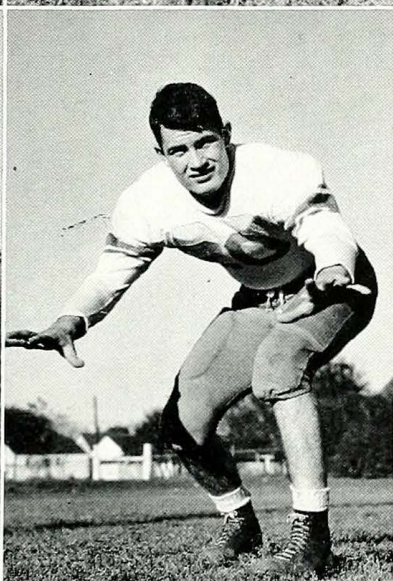

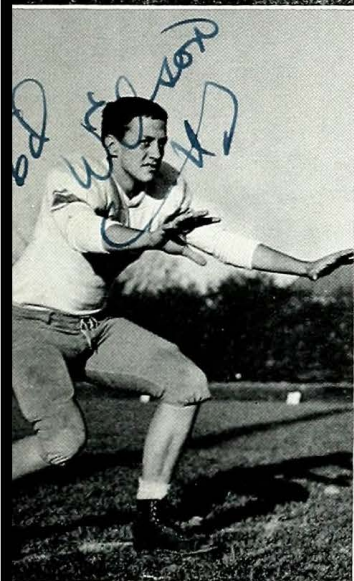

Mal Edwards — Understudy to Whalen this season, Mal will probably slide into the quarter-back position for the '50 season.

Paul Upchurch — A regular with the Trojans for two seasons, Paul will be back next year.

Junior Stokes — Filling the guard spot and a returning letterman, Stokes was known to opponents for his toughness.

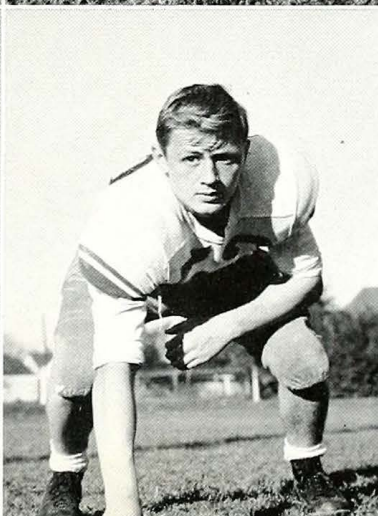

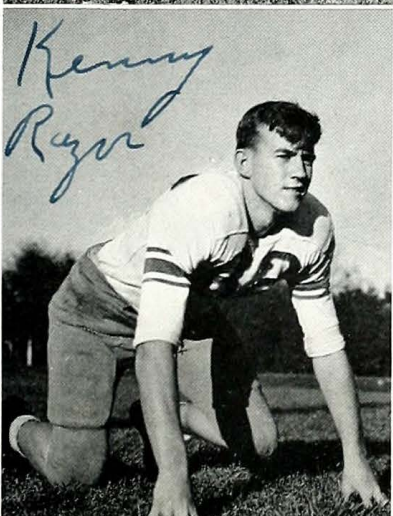

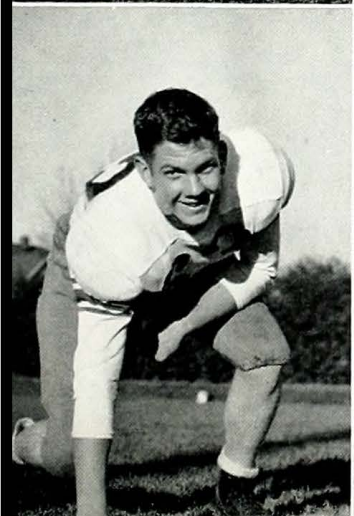

Bob Stohler — Substitute guard, Bob saw a lot of action in all games and was a rough boy full of spirit.

Ed Wilson — One of the three tallest boys on the team, "Leon Hart" will return next year as regular end.

Rodney Ford — This boy lives for football. "Rod" talks, plays, and breathes football and will probably shine next season in his senior year.

Jack Warmoth — Serving his second year on the varsity, Jack is deadly as a pass receiver.

Jim McGuire — Heavy sophomore who has two more seasons to play. "Mac" has a bright future as a lineman.

Kenneth Razor — Another underclassman to watch is this 6' 2" tackle who is really dangerous on defense.

Roger Burke — "Turk" will be back next year for his third varsity year. He's dynamic when he gets going.

Our Mighty Trojans---Smashing, Tackling,

These seniors brought football to a new high in Trojan town. The running of Jerry Ellis, Jack Wright, Kenny Bassett, and Herb Bunch carried the team through many tough spots. Dick Whalen's superb passing was matched by the center work of Mahlon Wiles and Jack DeWitt while the lineman's job was handled by Don Smith, Gene Downing, and L. B. Taylor. The gridiron record of these boys will long be remembered.

With thirty lettermen returning, the continued fame of the Trojan gridsters seems assured on the football field.

Driving Their Way To Gridiron Glory

MUNCIE 20—NEW CASTLE 6. It will be a long time before fans forget this game in which Muncie's Hosea Barnes ran the opening play for a touchdown and the favored Trojans tasted defeat for the only time in two years. In the top picture Wolfe of Muncie eludes Tom Dailey and Herb Bunch as Dick Whalen races up breathing fire. Below, Ellis watches as Upchurch throws an unidentified Muncie player for a loss. Whalen looks as if he is having a tough time bulldogging Wolfe.

"We are in business for fun—Yours" — LUELLEN'S SPORT SHOP

1950 Squad Is First Trojan Team

Marvin Turner — Marv, the only sophomore on this year's team, was moved up late in the season.

Herbert Bunch — Herb's ankle injury prevented much action, but he still maintained a great spirit.

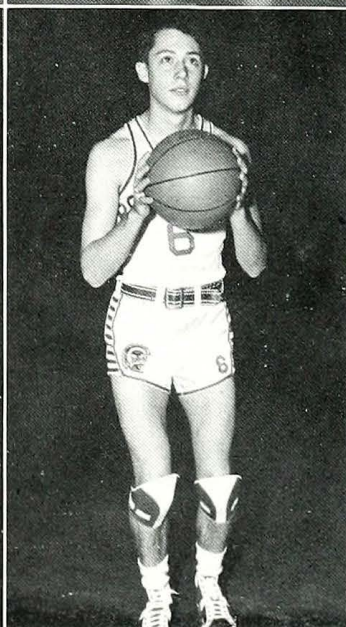

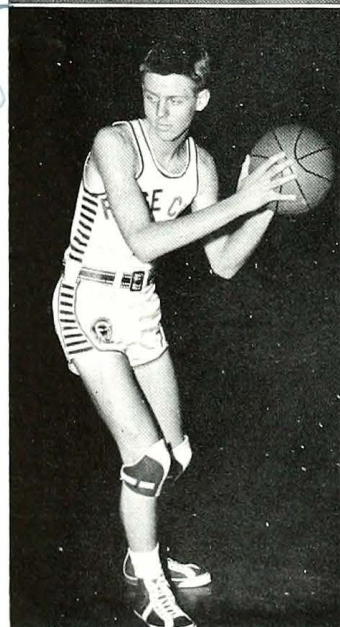

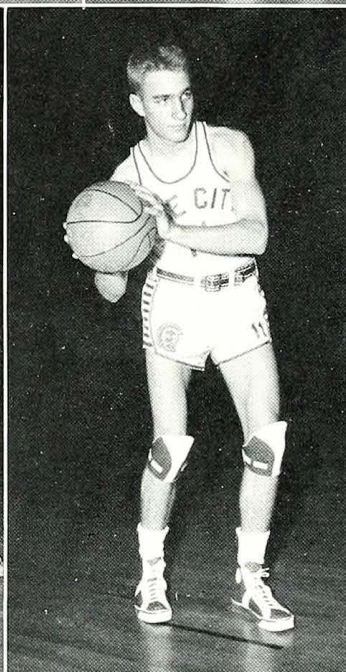

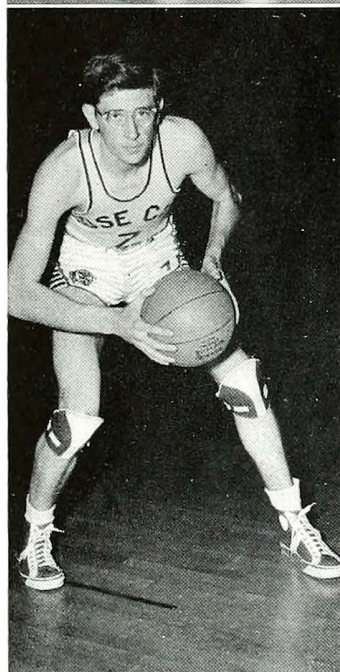

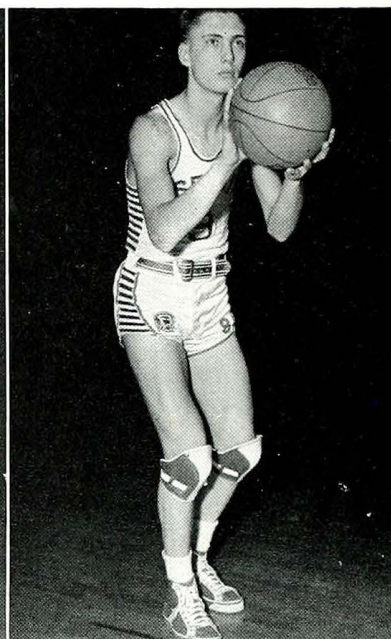

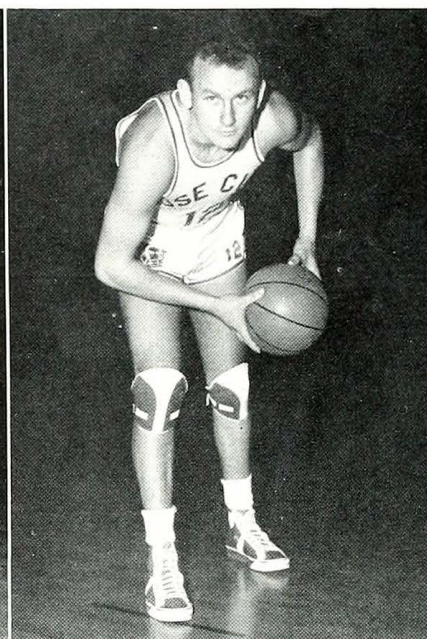

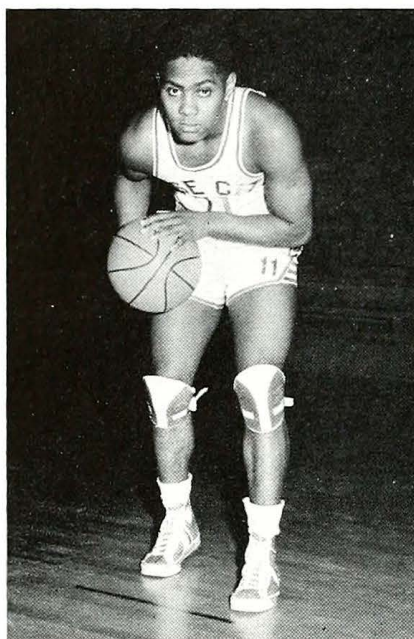

Junior Wood — "Snake's" pivot shots and fakings made him a highly regarded center in the N. C. C.

Bill Harlen — With rebounding his specialty, Bill can control the bank boards and is deadly accurate.

Mal Edwards — Another junior, Mal is clever and quick on the floor and will be among the starting five next year.

Bob George — Bob was one of the better substitutes on this year's team, and will be a real contender next season.

Calvin Cooper — Although Cal didn't play much, few players know as many fundamentals of the game as he does.

To Win Two Straight Regionals

Dick Whalen — "Hands," a terrific defensive rebounder and ball handler, will always be listed as a truly great Trojan.

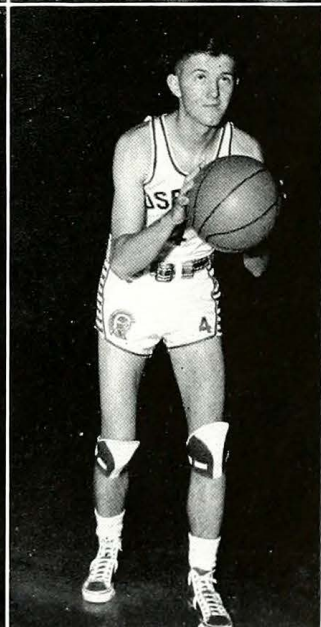

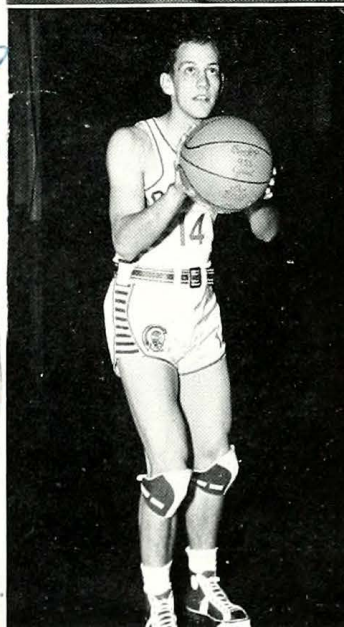

Jack Wright — "Rabbit" was the leader of the N. C. C. scoring race and the mainstay of Coach Stuckey's scoring punch.

Jerry Ellis — Captain of the team and a real fighter, "Buck" was a ball player of the highest caliber.

John Cassidy — A little boy with lots of fight, John has a big year ahead as a senior.

Tom Dailey — One of the steadyest players on the team, this junior will be back next year.

Ed Wilson — This junior is tops as a rebounder and a rough boy to stop at any time.

Don Tower — A persistent sure shot from the field, this senior will be missed next year.

Berries, Spartans, and Red Devils

As one of the Logansport Berries goes in for a lay-up, Dick Whalen is ready for the rebound, while Jack Wright, looks on tensely.

In the usual Trojan fast break, Jerry Ellis puts a two-pointer in the bucket as teammates Jack Wright, Ed Wilson, and Dick Whalen wait anxiously.

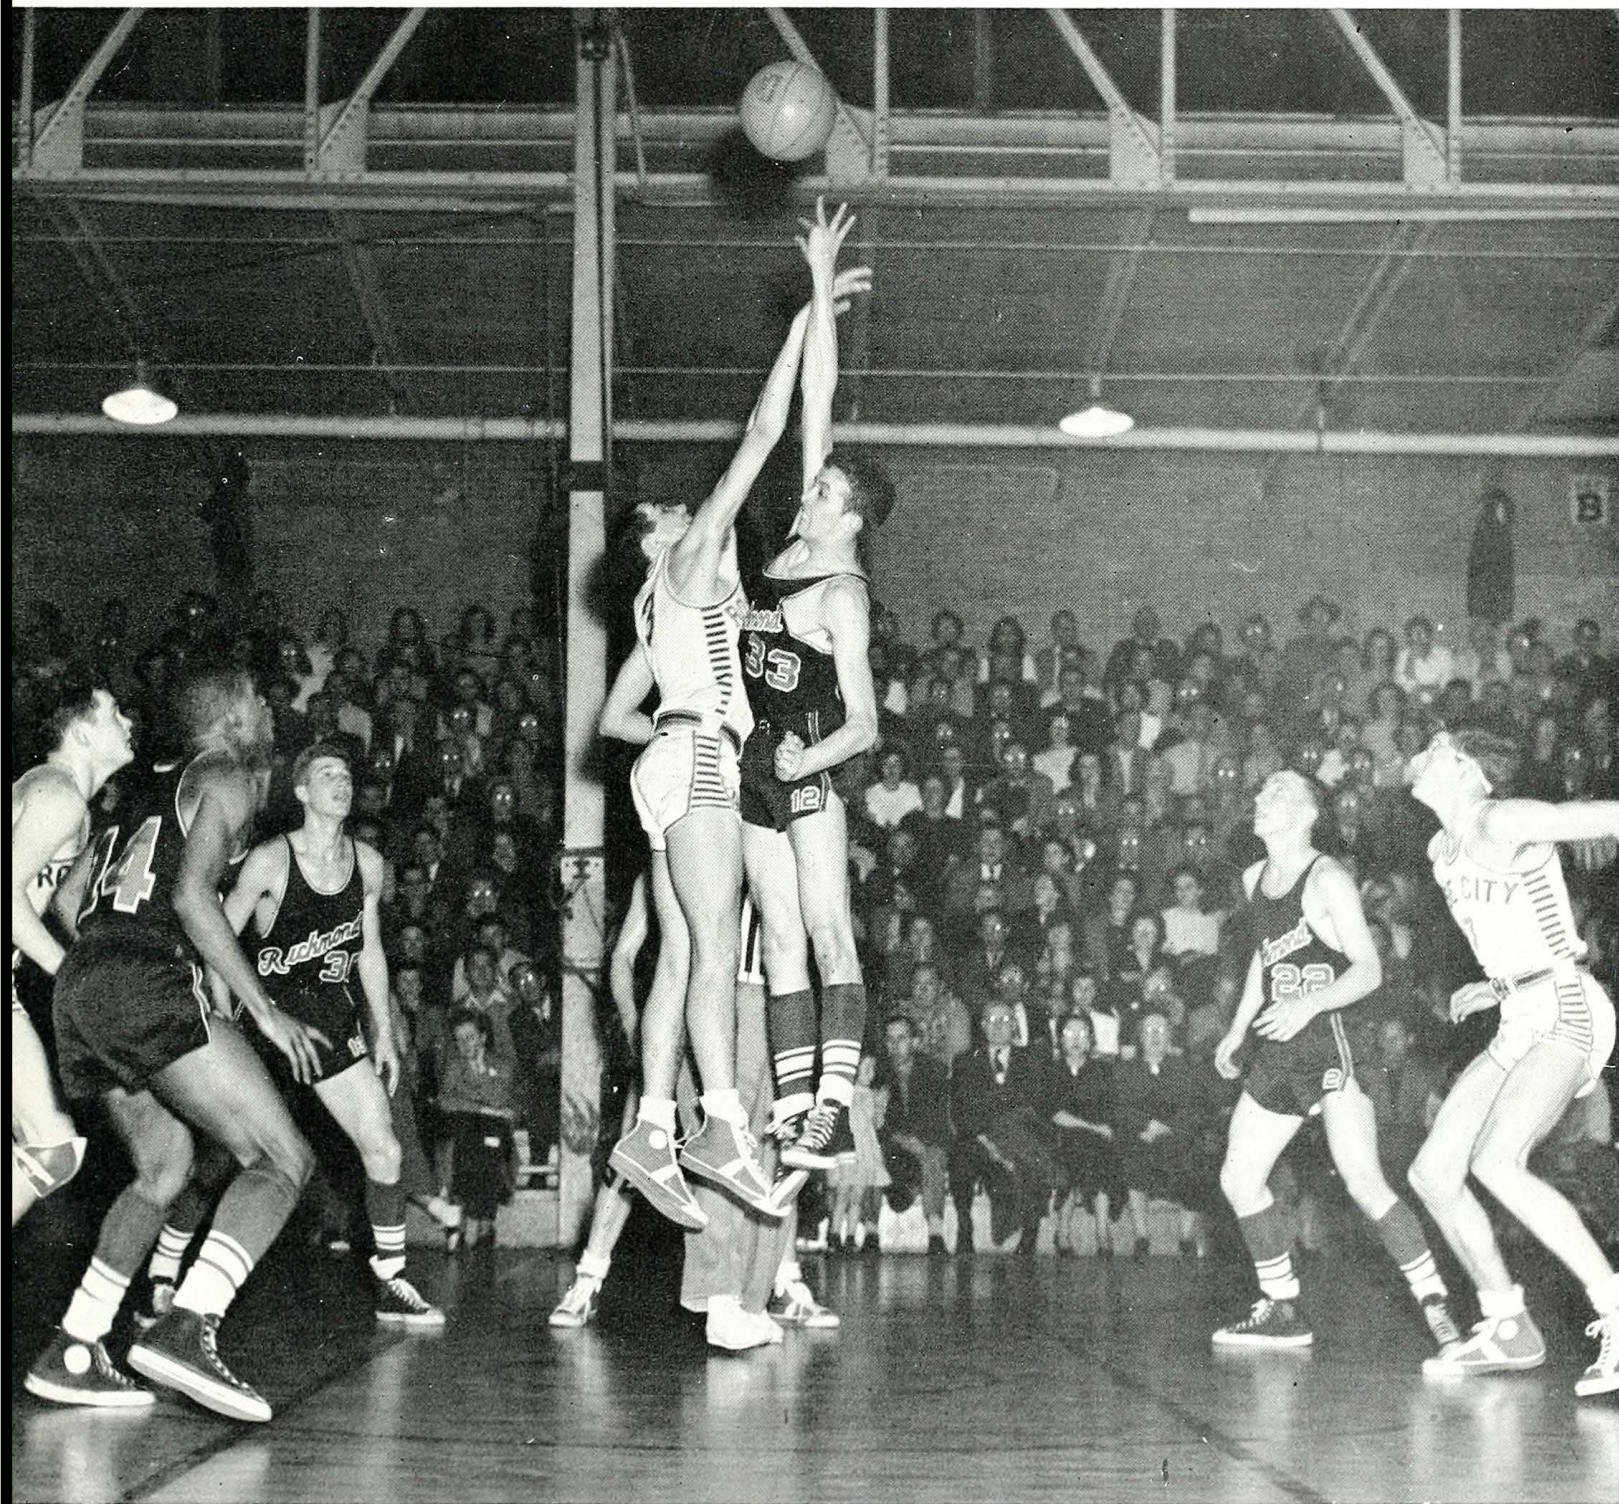

Fall Victim To Trojan Fast Break

"The best Trojan team since we won the state in '32," declared Mr. Lemme about the 1950 New Castle five at the final pep session.

Dick Whalen was one of the greatest bank-board men in the state. Jerry Ellis and Jack Wright, the scoring twins, were outshone by none, and Junior Wood, stellar center, was a coach's idea of a basketball player. These along with "Honest" Don Tower, who had an uncanny ability on long shots, will be sadly missed when the doors open next November on the 1951 basketball season.

Here, Whalen out-jumps the Richmond center as Ellis and Harlen wait for the ball. The Trojans gained revenge that night for an earlier defeat by the Red Devils.

'Victory, Victory Is Our Cry'---

"We got a team, no one's prouder" — a roar of applause rang out as the five New Castle yell leaders came out on the floor of the New Castle Gymnasium. "Skip" Hamlin was the only one of the five who returned from last year's group. Abe Roth and Don Scott, both seniors, and juniors Bernie Carter and Barbara Macer joined her in leading many new yells with clever routines.

Down in the locker room, unseen by the casual observers, student managers Don Scott, John Black, and Larry Meyer were always found preparing equipment or doing other odd jobs which fall to the managers of a basketball team. These boys have a never-ending job, a part of the invisible set-up which makes a team great.

Touted to win the state in 1950 by Dale Burgess, Associated Press sports writer, the Trojans started their season with a bang.

Downing Connersville, rough-and-ready Anderson, and the mighty Tech Greenclads, they journeyed to Burris of Muncie and added number four to their record of straight wins. After defeating Greensburg, the highly praised Trojans stumbled and lost to Richmond, Muncie Central, and New Albany before the New Year's Tourney. Losing to Anderson in the first game of the tourney, the Stuckeymen defeated Logansport in the consolation game.

Starting 1950 in the right manner by running over Kokomo and Frankfort, the Rose City boys avenged themselves over Richmond but lost to Marion in an overtime. Logansport fell before the march of the Rose City boys but Muncie Central halted them once more. They finished their home season by running over the Lafayette Bronchos, runnerup in the 1950 state finals.

In the final game with Anderson, everything went wrong and with five minutes to go the Trojans were behind fifteen points. All at once they caught fire, tied the score with 57 seconds left, and went on to win 62 to 60 ending the season with a record of 14 wins and 6 losses.

In the Sectional tourney, the Trojans blasted the New Lisbon Tigers, Spiceland Stingers, and Mt. Summit Eagles out of the way to meet Middletown in the final game. New Castle pulled out in front and stayed there, winning the game by 21 points.

Lynn was the first opponent downed by the Trojans in the regional. Next came the Muncie Bearcats who gave the Stuckeymen a nip and tuck battle before falling before the Trojan drive.

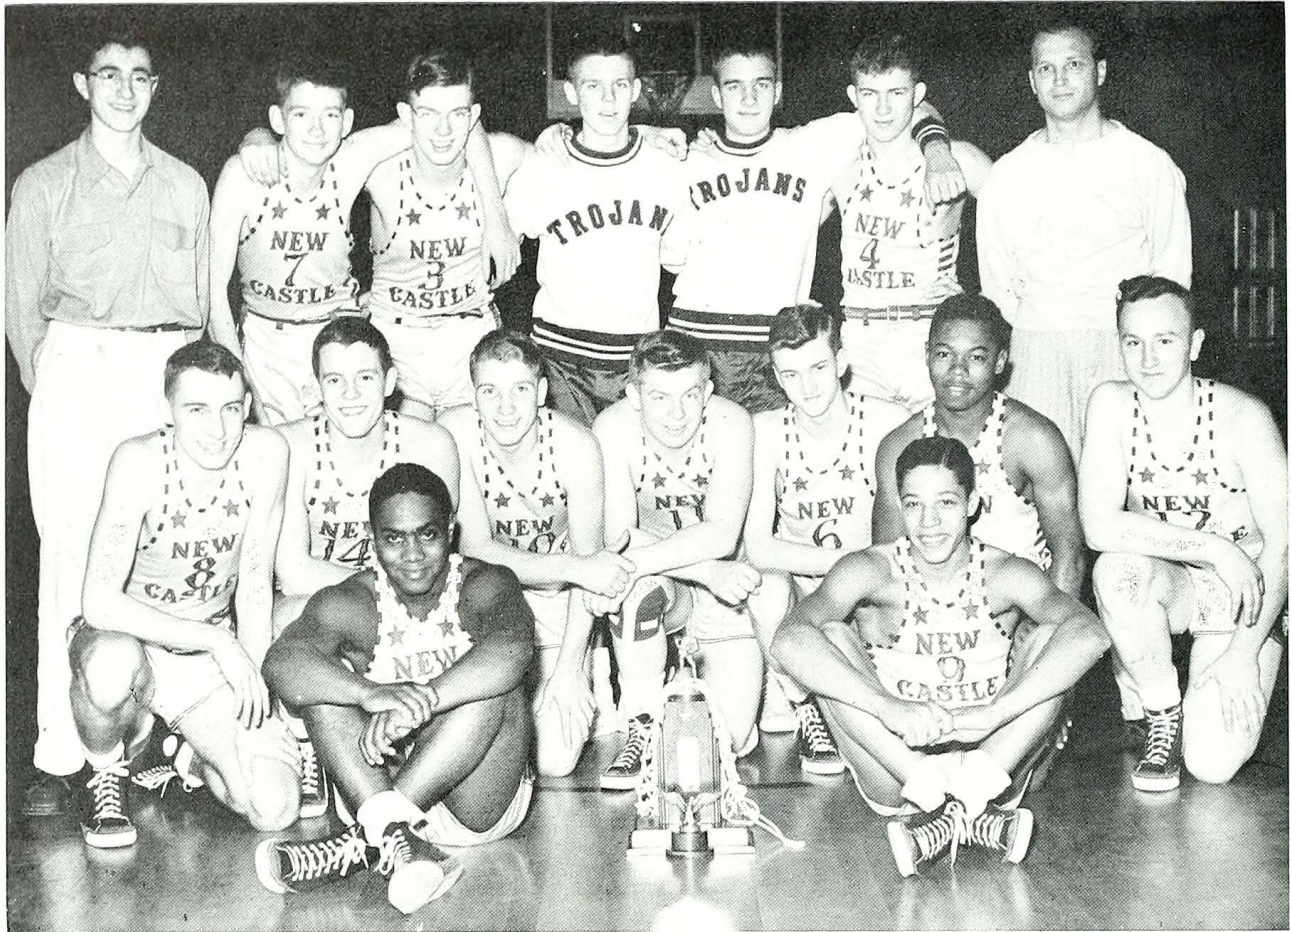

In the semi-finals Sheridan's red-hot Black Hawks couldn't be stopped and won from the Trojans despite a terrific battle.

Winning by large margins over Richmond and Muncie, the Trojan Colts brought home this year for the first time the "Little Four" trophy shown in the picture.

Coach Walter "Dutch" Hassfurder's boys ran up a string of 7 straight wins early in the season before the winning combination was broken up to strengthen the first team. The four boys moved up were Bill Harlen, Marvin Turner, Bob George, and Mal Edwards. The Colts finished their season with a record of 11 wins and 8 losses.

Golfers, Tennis Team Show Spirit

Dale Wilkinson coached the newly-organized tennis team through a season full of ups and downs. Abe Roth, Don Scott, and Bill Clug-gish, assisted by Calvin Cooper, Bob Franklin, and Jack DeWitt, who was injured early in the season, played such veteran teams as Muncie, Richmond, Anderson, and Hagerstown.

All of these boys reported for the 1950 team, backing up their tennis skill with a season's experience; but the team was disbanded due to the poor condition of local tennis courts.

Golf is becoming a major sport in NHS and the future looks bright for this spring sport. The team comprised of seniors Joe Leakey, Dale Fadely, and Jim Crow, juniors Kelly Wise, Paul Upchurch, Jim McGuire, J. C. Addison, Junior Stokes, Orlan Coleman, and Charles Rinehart, and sophomore Morris Edwards played good golf against such teams as Richmond, Muncie, and Anderson.

Last year, coached by Langan Hay, the team placed second in the invitation tourney at Batesville against 20 teams and broke even in eight dual meets.

Bobby Lee's Trackmen Win

Ending the 1949 season with 5 wins and 3 losses, the Trojan trackmen under Coach Bob Lee can boast of one of their best teams in years. Losing only in the three big relays, the thinly-clads won all of their dual and triangular meets.

In the first meet with Connersville and Knightstown, the track team hinted at its possible power as Jerry Ellis won three first places; the broad jump, high jump, and low hurdles. Jim Dailey was a double winner in the 220 and 440.

Mal Edwards and Calvin Cooper started their wins that were to carry on through all the meets as they finished first and second respectively in the half mile.

Against Burris and Hagerstown, the Trojans had a closer squeeze as both Tom and Jim Dailey won first places and became known as the "Dailey Double."

Elwood and Middletown failed to stop the Trojans as the Rose City tracksters made a clean sweep of the 100 yard dash and the shot put.

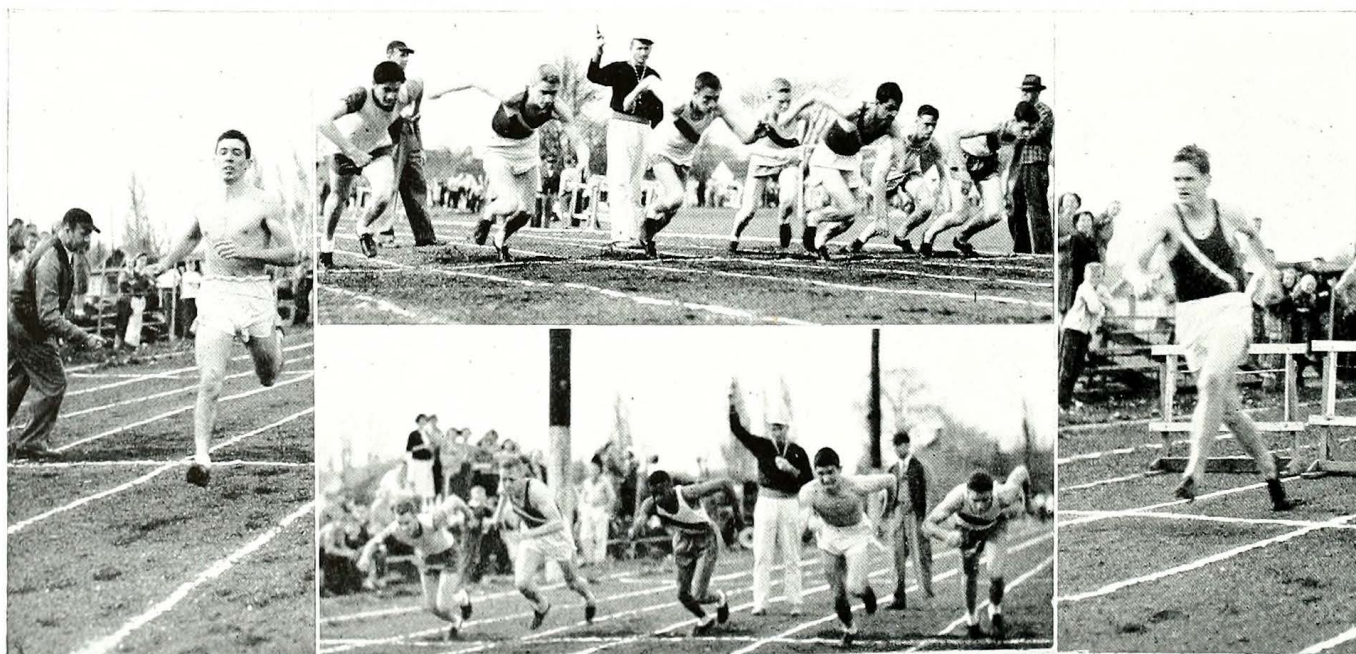

Rushville gave the thinlies their toughest battles as the T-men squeezed by the Lions 54 to 50. Rushville was ahead 50 to 44 before the last race, the half mile relay, which Ellis, Dailey, Turner, and Taylor won, pulling away to save the meet.

After a poor showing in the Muncie relays, the Leeman placed third at Frankfort and dropped to sixth place at Kokomo.

At Muncie Jerry Ellis broad-jumped 22' 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ ", a mark that was topped only once by any other Indiana high school athlete last season.

In the regional meet New Castle placed four contenders: Edwards in the 880, Tom Dailey in the shot put, Jerry Ellis in the broad jump and high jump, and Jim Dailey in the 220 and 440.

This team, made up of mostly juniors and sophomores, is still potentially strong and should continue to match last year's record.

"Take me out to the ball game — let me watch those Trojans. Yes, let me see the baseball team come through with flying colors."

That's what our students said as they left the corner to trudge to the "ball park" to see the 1949 Trojan Nine play. The starting line-up read like this:

Catcher — Steve Taylor

First Base — Keith Hodgin

Second Base — Bill Palmblade

Short Stop — Jim Goff

Third Base — Dick Whalen

Outfield — Jack Grose, Jerry Ellis, and Jack Alexander

Pitchers — Jack Juday, Junior Wood, and Dave Burke

Our beloved Mr. Greenstreet punches tickets once again.

LIFE AT OUR CORNER taught us many things in 1950. But it was our activities which taught us the most important lesson of all our lessons: how to get along with others. What success did we have? Well, just look and see . . .

Activities

Kings and Queens For A Night

A trumpet fanfare, the magic words "I crown you . . .," and another king or queen is added to the ranks of the royalty elected at our school dances. Whether it was vacation, after a ball game, or merely Friday night, we always found time to dance.

The highlight of Christmas vacation was the "Holiday Dance," the first formal dance of the season, which was tri-sponsored by Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, and Fi Del. Dusty Rhodes furnished the music for the 100 couples who chose Doria Dann, upper left, to reign as their queen.

Custom was reversed at our Fi-Del sponsored "Heart's Hop" when the girls bought the tickets and asked the boys. At upper right, Katherine Williams and Bob Stohler are

After celebrating "Turkey Day," more than 200 couples danced to the music of Dusty Rhodes at our annual homecoming celebration, "Harvest Hop," sponsored by Hi-Y. As "queen for the night," the dancers chose Carolyn Robinson, shown at lower right.

Shakespeare's ladies seem very happy as they take their curtain call for "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet." They are Nellie England, Joan Thompson, Dona Sowder, Skippy Hamlin, Roberta Harris, Betty Prizeman, and Pat Clift. Cynthia Shirk, not pictured, was also a member of the cast.

Getting ready to embark on "A Happy Journey" are Mary Ada Stoops, Duane Tichenor, Doris McNew, and Forrest Blansette. Waving goodbye are Delores DeWerpe, Marilyn Copeland, and Bob Lee.

After weeks of flat painting, prop-finding, and costume-fitting, the curtain rose once again on "Curtain Call." This annual production of the dramatics department, which was directed by Charles Eric Bickley, featured four one-act plays.

In "If Men Played Cards As Women Do," Bill Cluggish, Don Scott, Bob George, and John Black look on sheepishly while Marilyn Armacost, Pat Summers, Marceline Burch, and Sharon Aaron show them how women play cards as men do.

Jean Kay Koon seems to know something no one else does as she smiles knowingly in "Mr. Lincoln's Whiskers." Looking on tensely are Delonda Bar-

DONNA JACOBS

Under a ceiling of silver-sprinkled streamers, the members of last year's junior class entertained the seniors of '49 at their Junior-Senior Prom. The twenty-fifth birthday of NHS was the theme of the decorations and entertainment at this "Silver Anniversary" prom.

After the entertainment was given, Don Scott, junior class president, named the six attendants to the Prom Queen. These girls — Sharon Aaron, De-lores DeWerpe, Patty Summers, Skippy Hamlin, Martha Lou Johnson, and Rosalyn Fields — were crowned with colored headbands on which were the silver numbers "1949." Then as the crowd waited breathlessly, Don kissed and crowned the 1949 Prom Queen, Miss Donna Jacobs.

Forever and ever, our hearts will remain
At Prom of '49 where as Queen you reign.
We'll make you a promise, to in memory keep,
The way you look, so beautiful and sweet.
We'll always remember our Prom Queen
And the night we danced 'til the dawn.
In years to come we'll look back and Recall the night of Junior-Senior Prom.

Lightly Turn To Thoughts of Prom

As part of the program, Prom Entertainment took everyone back 25 years to the old Rose City Pharmacy, after Janet Harrison and Bob George asked Herb Bunch, the proprietor, what it was like. The old hangout was really jumping — flappers dancing (Verna Dalton and Skip Hamlin), a dixie-land band (Jim Ashton, Charles Preble, and Kenny Bassett), a dance by two tennis players (Don Scott and Abe Roth), and the arrival of the "town-crier," (Martha Grayson). The man-shortage problem was told by Margie Hall and Joan Thompson as they sang "You'd Be Surprised." After Don Scott sang "You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby" to what turned out to be the wrong baby (Patty Summers), Brenda and Cobina (Pat Clift and Delonda Bartuska) arrived to find a date for the '24 Prom. As if in answer to their problem, the great Athlete (Abe Roth) entered showing off his "N's in the oddest places, and was shanghaied by the girls, who sang "You're the Shiek of Araby" to him. While they chased him back and forth across stage, business went on as usual as Mr. Bronson (Joe Carter) was given some nitro-glycerin by mistake and it accidentally blew up. Reminding everyone that this would not happen "Again" was Bob George, who sang at the conclusion of the program.

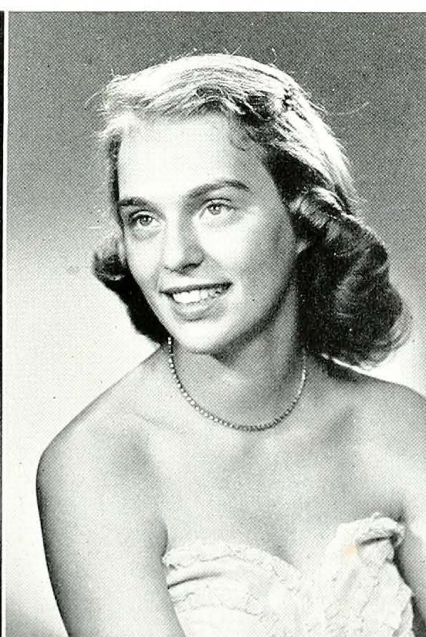

Joan and Margie seem rather perturbed about their social life as they sing "You'd Be Surprised" accompanied by Sally Clift.

The Great Athlete (Abe Roth) shows off one of his collection of "N's," some of which are worn in the oddest places.

"Alleluia, Alleluia, Al-le-lu-ia!"

This lovely hymn was only one of the many songs sung this year by the concert choir. With Don Martin to direct their singing and their breath-control exercises, the choir presented varied programs at Thanksgiving Chapel Service, Senior Vespers, Baccalaureate, and Commencement as well as concerts with the band and orchestra. They also hold the distinction of being the only high school choir invited to sing at the National P.T.A. Convention held April 21 at French Lick.

Individual choir members participated in the District, State, and Super-State Solo and Ensemble contests. The second semester saw the choir add eight new members and also become the proud wearers of new green choir robes.

All Dressed Up For A Concert

Porter*

Under the magical touch of Mr. Bernard Pressler, the weird sounds which came from Room 305 during the fourth period were transformed into the smooth-sounding orchestra which played for many school functions. "Curtain Call" and the senior class play found the orchestra performing at the gym, and it was the orchestra's playing "Pomp and Circumstance" which ushered the seniors down the aisle at Commencement. Also on their program were concerts with the choir and the combined choruses of the city schools. The orchestra was likewise well-represented in the District, State, and Super-State Solo and Ensemble contests. The orchestra elected officers who helped plan "Crescendo Varieties" and other orchestra activities. Shown looking over some orchestra music are Jack DeWitt, president, Porter Poindexter, vice-president; and Marilyn DeWeese, treasurer.

Frequently staggering out at the crack of dawn for early-morning marching practice were those "unsung heroes" of NHS, the members of the concert band. As Mr. Pressler directed with "It's puttity-puttity-bump," the bandsmen played for all our ball games and also presented several concerts. Smartly dressed in the new gray-and-green uniforms, they marched at pigskin games both at home and away.

Perhaps the band's biggest thrill was being chosen one of the eight Indiana high school bands who performed at Butler Band Day. Not only were their drills filmed in color, but they were also televised by WFBM-TV. Several band members also took part in the District, State, and Super-State Solo and Ensemble Contests.

Busy Making Music, Music, Music!

Mr. Pressler was never too busy to answer the band members' questions. Here he is shown explaining some music to the band officers: Patty Stinson and Joanne Bennett, librarians; Jack Cannon, quartermaster; Joyce Thomas, treasurer; Jack DeWitt, captain; and Jane Adams, secretary.

A newcomer to the Music Department this year was the Pep Band, which was affectionately christened "B. O. Pressler and his Little Stinkers."

Organized for out-of-town basketball games, the band played at Marion and at Muncie. Popularity called them to play for the polio fund drive held at the gym, the Country Club's "Gay Nineties Show Boat," the sectional tourney, and the celebrations for winning the sectional and the regional.

The "Stinkers" also travelled to Lynn on a "good-will" tour before the regional and later for a senior class benefit, and were the feature attraction at a Daleville convocation. Much credit should go to Mr. Pressler for his work with the band members, the unofficial "ambassadors" of NHS.

We Didn't Waste A Single

September

It was back to school on the eighth with nine more months of hard work. Football started with a bang when we won our first game over Hartford City. We had our first senior class meeting when seniors elected their class officers. During this month several of the school clubs had their informal initiations and boy, were they tough! Underclassmen were "shot" by the Rosennial photographer.

October

Parties, parties, and more parties were given during October for Halloween. Goblins, pumpkins, and false faces were in style. Some of us were really surprised with our report cards, and some were afraid for Mother and Dad to see them. The Rosennial staff had its annual subscription drive. Rosennial and Phoenix members attended the I. H. S. P. A. convention at Franklin College while teachers were at the state teachers convention in Indianapolis.

November

Dramatics classes presented "Curtain Call" for one of the biggest features of November. We attended our first basketball game of the season to see the Trojans beat Connersville. After the games, there were the usual dances sponsored by school clubs. Everyone was on a diet this month, could it be because of the Thanksgiving turkey?

December

Seniors attended as a class their first event of the year, Senior Vespers. Clarence C. Stoughton, president of Wittenburg College, addressed seniors and their guests. Who said there is no Santa Claus? With all the clothes and gifts students received it is hard to believe there is no St. Nick. During Christmas vacation, we traveled to the Big Four Tourney at Kokomo only to see our team defeated by the Anderson Indians.

January

Exams, exams, that was the talk around NHS at the end of the first semester but we started right in for the second half of the school year as the deans tried frantically to check everyone's program. Basketball was at its peak when we got revenge on Richmond. The Red Devils had handed the Trojans their first defeat of the season but it was a different story when they travelled to Troy Town.

One of Our 3,888,000 Seconds

February

"Oh You Basketball," was the cry around Troy Town in February. Trojan fans went to Anderson to see our team come home with a two point victory. Then, of course, there was the sectional which we won easily. Along with the snow and snow ball fights, boys began to think about dates for the Hi-Y annual Best Girl Banquet, and the girls were trying to decide who to ask to Heart's Hop.

March

With the March winds and rain, we travelled to the Muncie regional and won for the second straight time by defeating the Muncie Bearcats. A good Sheridan team stopped the Trojans in a thriller the next week at the Muncie Field House. Our parents were guests at a high school open house that month. Sixteen seniors and twelve juniors were elated when they received invitations from the National Honor Society.

April

Everyone, especially seniors, was busy during April. Seniors gave their class play and along came report cards again for the second six weeks. After a two day Easter vacation, the music department began preparing for Crescendo Varieties. The robed choir travelled to French Lick to sing for the state P.T.A. convention. Then those dreaded math refresher tests found juniors in a daze and not prepared as always.

May

Honor Day, Class Day, Baccalaureate, Junior Prom, and the other senior events kept all of us busy in May. Everyone was excited on Class Day as he received his Rosennial and gazed through its pages to see the happenings of the school year. We attended the dance that night and those who tried to dance were interrupted by someone who wanted his Rosennial signed.

June

June was a sad month for some of us and for others it just meant vacation until next September. Seniors combined sadness and joy as they raced through their last few high school days, discussed their new clothes for commencement, the P.T. A. Commencement dance, and the Chamber of Commerce party. Many tears were shed as they marched into the gym in their caps and gowns and came out graduates of New Castle High School.

Junior Rotarians are members of the senior class elected by members of the National Honor Society. Each boy attends Rotary meetings for one month. The senior class president and male members of the Honor Society automatically become members.

Rotary hopes in this way to acquaint the boys with men of the community and with civic problems which they will face in later life.

Attending this year were Don Scott, October; Bob DeWeese, November; John Logan, December; Bob Franklin, January; Herbert Bunch, February; Ralph Pierce, March; Abe Roth, April; and Harold Dye, May.

Eleven senior girls were elected this year as Altrusa Girls by a faculty committee. The Altrusa Club, composed of New Castle business women and teachers, honored these girls at a banquet this spring.

Altrusa Girls are seniors chosen on the basis of probability to succeed, service, dependability, and leadership.

Those chosen this year were Miriam Acker, Charlotte Mathews, Donna Jacobs, Jackie Greig, Marilyn Crow, Betty Zachary, Rosie Rector, Joanne Courtney, Jane Adams, Dee Ann Jessup, and Lola Bittner.

Looking up . . . up . . . up! Yes, that's us, the 18 seniors and 5 juniors on the 1950 Rosennial staff. Our "baby", as we proudly call it, took a lot of hard work—mounting glossies, cropping pictures, counting out copy; but we'll never forget the fun we had doing it.

Dona and Marilyn will always remember numbering underclassmen glossies, as will Pat and Delonda, who took care of the seniors. Dee Ann and Patty kept track of our many clubs, while Larry and Gene recorded the year's activities. Joe and Tom listed our Trojan trail of sports, while Virginia was busy with the faculty. Les drew our cartoons, and Marilyn and Donna picked the year's highlights found in the opening section. Harold and Jackie mounted the pictures, while Nancy, Louise, Barbara, Rosalyn, and Marilyn compiled the index and helped where needed.

However, it was the "Triple Threat"—Miss Halberstadt, Pat, and Abe—who kept their eagle-eyes out over everything. With her constant cry of "Meet the Deadline," Miss Halberstadt saw to it that our book was done on time. Guarding the "dummy" and writing copy stickers by the hundreds were two of the many jobs that fell to our editor, Pat. Making our budget come out even was the big headache of Abe, our business manager.

But in spite of everything, we're proud we can point to the 1950 Rosennial and say "Yes sir, that's our baby!"

Parents Find Time To Relax

Although we were busy most of the time with (ahem) "very important business," we did take time out once in a while to have some fun and pose for some unusual pictures. At upper left you see Marilyn perched high atop our "Ladder of Success," while an admiring throng is clustered about her. On the right are the staff and an unidentified dog posing precariously on top of the power house. Trying hard to look busy are the staff members who are looking over some of our 584 (by actual count) pictures, as shown at lower left. And finally we put our best foot forward while Marilyn clutches a copy of the 1950 Rosennial.

Sponsors Miss Smith and Miss Roney are served at the F. H. A. tea.

IT'S A MATTER of pride to those of us here at the corner that our school has so many organizations. School life certainly would not be the same without all the activities of these groups. If you would like to know more about them and what they do, just turn the page . . .

Organizations

SENATUS POPULUSQUE ROMANUS

An active chapter of the national Junior Classical League is the S.P.Q.R. or Latin Club. During the school year, members present many programs about Roman history and customs at their monthly meetings. They also learn many Latin songs and participate in the festival of the Floralia, which corresponds to May Day. The highlight of their year's activities is the annual Roman Banquet, which is served with all Roman ceremony to the club's toga-clad members.

This year's officers who worked with Miss Mabel Hodson, sponsor, were Bob George, president; Bill Cluggish, vice-president; Marjorie Hall, secretary; and Barbara Buckels, treasurer.

ROW 4—Arnold Cooper, Albert Cashdollar.

The French Club has night meetings twice a month. Its purpose is to increase the knowledge of French and French culture. This purpose is carried out by playing games in French, inviting guest speakers familiar with French, having movies in French or about France, and is climaxed by the annual French Club banquet in the spring.

This year's officers were Tom Dailey, president; Bob Riley, vice-president; Marilyn Goar, secretary; Jane Ann Jennings, treasurer; and Mrs. Martha Bickley, sponsor.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

Living up to their motto, "Others," are the one hundred and fifty SunShine Girls of NHS. SunShine decorates the halls at Christmas, presents fruit plates at Thanksgiving to invalids and shut-ins, and this year presented the school with the information desk in the main hall. The girls raise money for their projects by selling schedule pencils and popcorn to Trojan fans. SunShine activities which have become traditional are the "Snow Ball," Christmas tea for the faculty, choosing Ideal Ladies, and the Easter Sunrise Service. Members also help the Riley Hospital Fund by sponsoring a Riley Tag Day. Marjorie Hall was state president for this year, which marked the Golden Anniversary of SunShine in Indiana.

Each year an Ideal SunShine Girl is chosen to attend the SunShine Camp at Delphi, Indiana, along with the president for the following year.

With Mrs. Fylious Fisher as sponsor, SunShine had as its officers: Marjorie Tapscott, president; Lena Smith, vice-president; Lola Bittner recording secretary; Martha Lou Johnson, corresponding secretary; Barbara Buckels, treasurer; Sandra Hoover, sergeant-at-arms; and Barbara Curlett, chaplain.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

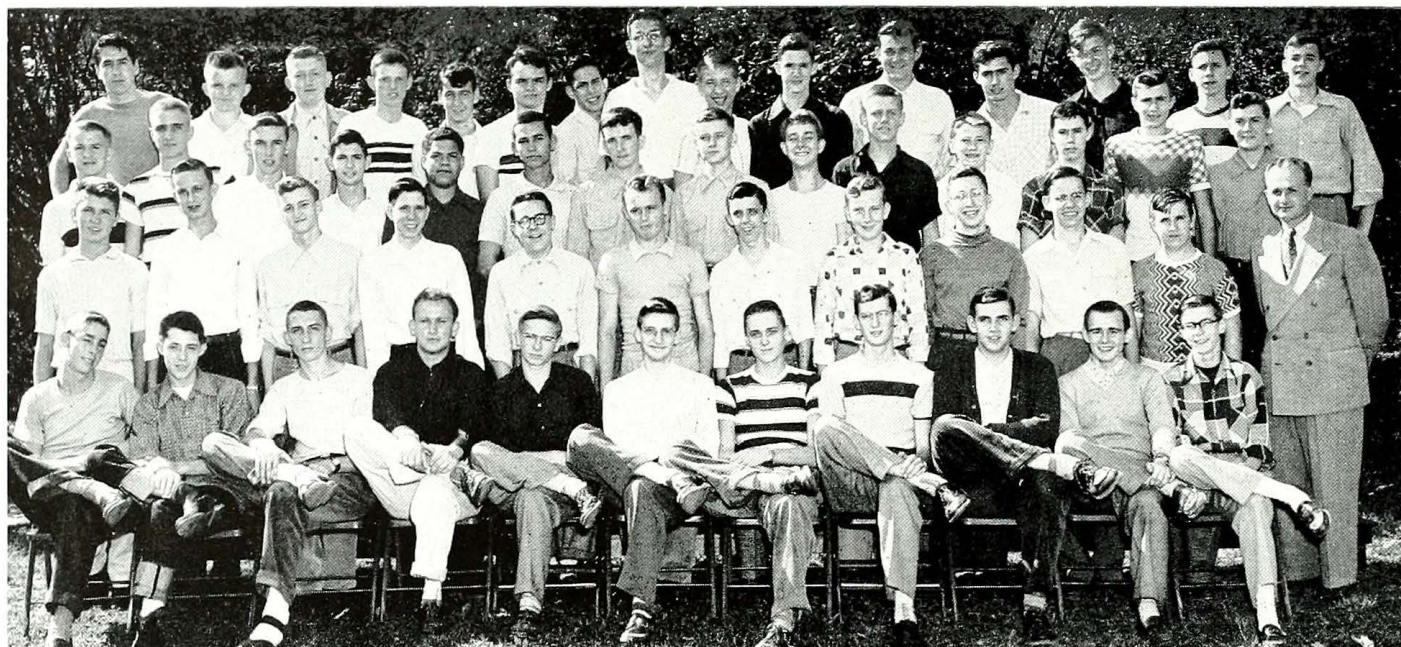

Students of this society are elected by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Not more than 15 per cent of the junior class may be elected to membership. This group compiles the honor roll at the end of each grading period, and they sponsor several drives for welfare. They have a Christmas party, school dance, and the induction banquet.

Officers for the first semester were Harold Dye, president; Lola Bittner, vice-president; Sally Clift, secretary; and Maybelle Crumrine, treasurer.

For the second semester, Bob Franklin was president; Bob DeWeese, vice-president; Roberta Harris, secretary; Donna Jacobs, treasurer. Miss Catherine Ratcliffe is the sponsor.

QUESTERS HI-Y

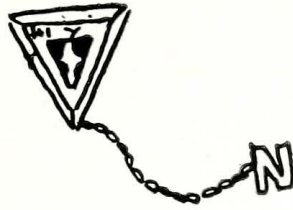

Questers Hi-Y is the only club at NHS which is limited strictly to underclassmen. The freshmen and sophomores who make up its members sponsor the Questermen's Ball and entertain their fathers at a Father-and-Son Banquet. Christmas-time finds them caroling and presenting fruit and candy to the patients at the hospital. They also find time to serve their school and community by performing various services.

Questers, under the leadership of Lewis Larrison, had as officers for the year Monte Brammer, president; Don Carbon, vice-president; John Ray, treasurer; Randall Fisher, secretary; Bobby Tichenor, sergeant-at-arms, and Tom Payne, chaplain.

Any senior or junior may belong to Tri-Hi, which is an affiliate of the Y.M.C.A. The girls have as their purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the community high standards of Christian character." By sponsoring an after-the-game mixer, Tri-Hi's members helped raise the money which they spent on many worthy projects during the year. They also attended several Hi-Y and Tri-Hi conferences with their sponsor, Miss Helen Rupley.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club was organized to further the knowledge of scientific facts and techniques of students particularly interested in biology. A topic of scientific interest is discussed at each meeting. Field trips, camping trips, bird population studies, and parties add variety to the club's program. The officers were Carl Davis, president; Arthur Branham, vice-president; Freda Wilt, secretary-treasurer; Marilyn Beckett, steering committee chairman; Max Forsyth and Robert Rinehart, sponsors.

FI DEL

In 1946, the Fi Del Club, now consisting of more than 60 members, was organized. This year it became a chapter of the Tri-Hi-Y. During the school year, the club takes an active part in the school program. Some of its activities are selling cokes and ice cream at basketball games, sponsoring the annual Heart's Hop, and this year, as a special project, the club re-decorated the dean of girls' office.

The officers for this year were Doria Dann, president; Virginia Andrews, vice-president; Sharon Aaron, secretary; Dee Ann Jessup, treasurer, and Mrs. Martha Bickley, sponsor.

MACHINIST CLUB

Although the primary purpose of the Machinists Club is to encourage boys' interest in machine practice, it also provides social activities for its members. The club tries to serve in every way the best interests of NHS. Each year its members sponsor an after-the-game mixer to help to raise money so they may have funds to carry out their various projects and other activities.

The officers who worked with Jack Spencer, Machinist Club sponsor, were Bill Bledsoe, president; Dwight Reichart, vice-president; Bill Carter, secretary; and Bob Swim, treasurer.

CLIFT'S SHOE STORE — Famous For Quality

SENIOR F.H.A.

The New Castle Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America has 25 members. In 1947 it became one of the first 300 chapters to be organized in the United States.

The club's activities were varied. It sponsored a home economics class in Germany by sending them supplies and exchanging fashions. It carried on panel discussions on boy-girl relationships and other teen-age topics.

The officers were Emma Rose Van Dyke, president; Marilyn Goar, vice-president; Jane Adams, secretary-treasurer; Letitia Swindell, reporter; Betty Zachary, parliamentarian; Norma Jones, historian; Lillian Branham, song leader; and Miss Eunice Smith, sponsor.

JUNIOR F.H.A.

The New Castle Junior Chapter of F.H.A. was organized this fall as an affiliate chapter of the Senior chapter and is composed only of members of the 9B class. Each girl has been working hard to earn her Junior Homemakers' degree this term and to earn a club pin.

The officers for the year were Patty Weisse, president; Joan Black, vice-president; Kay Bailey, secretary; and Miss Elizabeth Roney, sponsor.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers held monthly meetings during the school year and met each week last summer, largely for recreational purposes.

Among the activities of the club were trips to Chicago and the International Dairy Show at Indianapolis. The boys entered contests of pest control and also the WLW scrap metal collection. In addition, they hand-picked five acres of corn for sick farmers, free of charge.

Officers were Merrill Wantz, president; Logan Niles, vice-president; Dale Fadely, treasurer; Robert Malcom, secretary; Jimmy Hamm, reporter; Maurice Weekly, sponsor.

ROW 1 — Bob Reese, Miron Hutson, Robert Malcom, Dale Fadley, Jim Hamm, Paul Niles, Bob Grose, Bob Huse, Mr. Weekly.

DRAFTING CLUB

The Drafting Club was organized in 1948 with the purposes of serving the interests of the school and promoting good fellowship and understanding between students, parents, and the teacher.

Activities include an annual picnic, a dance, and regular bi-monthly meetings.

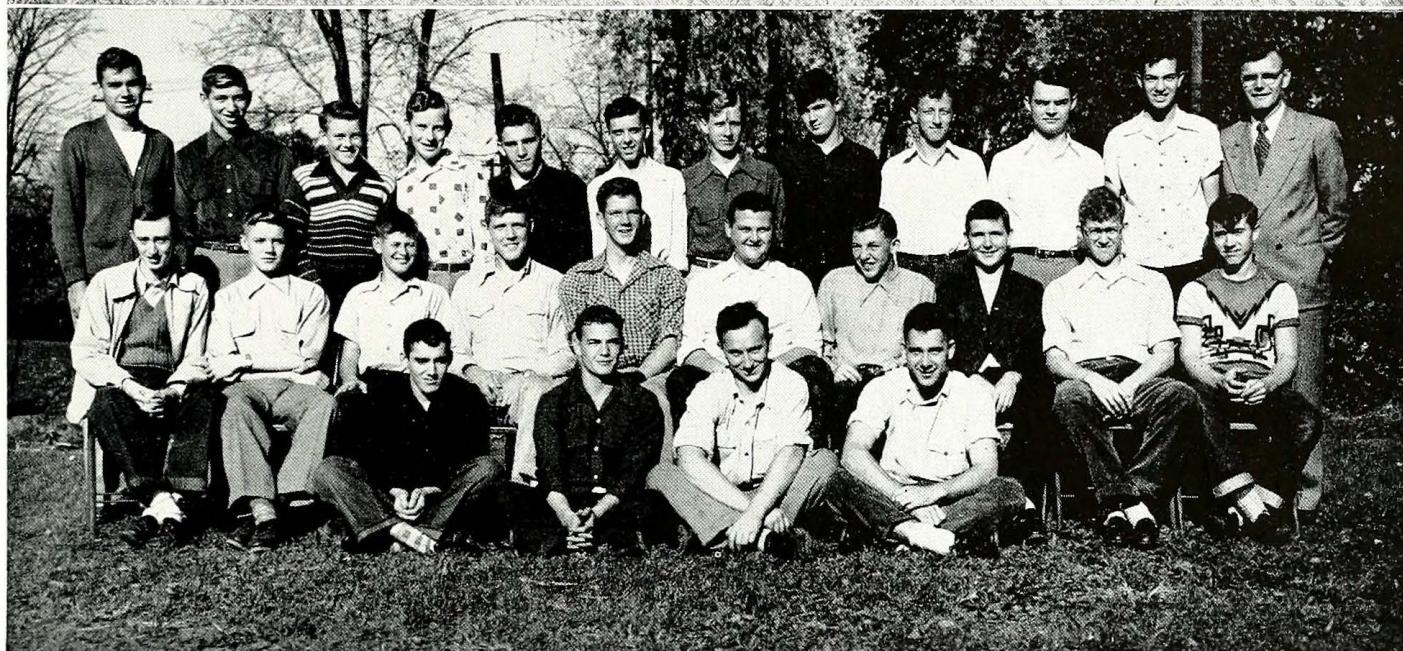

The officers for the year were John Cassidy, president; Orlan Coleman, vice-president; and C. S. Kinder, sponsor.

ROW 1 — Lloyd Sparks, Raymond Brumfield, Orlan Coleman, John Cassidy.

The Girls' Athletic Association, a member of the Indiana League of High School Girls' Athletic Association, was organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in good sportsmanship. The present organization has a membership of seventy girls who participate in different activities preparatory to the earning of points toward local and state awards.

There are fourteen sports in which the girls participate, including volleyball, basketball, and softball.

Officers were Rosie Rector, president; Phyllis Lorton, vice-president; Joanne Courtney, secretary; Mrs. Bobbie Hill, sponsor.

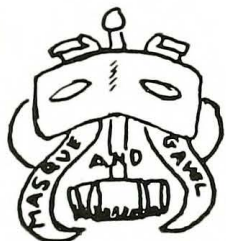

ROW 1 — Mr. Bickley, Nancy Fisher, Katherine Williams, Delonda Bartuska, Martha Grayson, Dee Ann Jessup, Sharon Aaron, Pat Summers, Leah Wood, Louise Gephart, Pat Clift.

ROW 2 — Don Scott, Johnny Black, Joann Moody, Janet Harrison, Bob Franklin, Duane Tichenor, John Logan, Harold Dye, Bill Cluggish, Joe Carter.

MASQUE AND GAVEL

The newest of NHS clubs is Masque and Gavel, an international dramatics honorary which was organized locally in December, 1949. Its membership is open to dramatics students who have done outstanding work in class. Students are chosen for membership on the basis of points earned in class and dramatics productions. Twenty-five members from both junior and senior drama classes chose the following officers:

Dee Ann Jessup, president; Duane Tichenor, vice-president; Sharon Aaron, secretary; Bob Franklin, treasurer; Bill Cluggish, sergeant-at-arms; and Charles Bickley, sponsor.

These, the clubs of N. H. S., give thought for many memories. Initiation—a bedraggled looking pledge, or formally attired new member; election of officers; parties and dances; conventions; and regular meetings are all a part of any club's activities that long will be remembered.

Wearing the club's pin not only means the fun of belonging, but active service to the school and community, and an increased knowledge not gained in the classroom.

Banquets, Voting, Pledging Keep Clubs Busy

S.P.Q.R. members look forward to the annual Roman banquet, an outstanding activity of the club. A typical Roman meal is served by beginning Latin students dressed in the costumes of slaves.

Phyllis Lorton presides over a regular Tri-Hi meeting held in the Y.M.C.A. Here plans are discussed for sending representatives to Camp Tecumseh, and for the annual Easter Lily sale.

With the ordeal of rough initiation over, each Fi Del pledge received that little white envelope inviting her to become a member. The girls were formally initiated in a candlelight service held in the First Methodist Church.

These club activities, in which every student may participate, complete a well-rounded school life at the corner of 14th and Walnut.
